Note: The last three entries in the Bible listed below are not children of Peter and Sabrina Ellen Malott, but rather the children of Silas Malott and his wife, Mary F.(Wood) Malott, the latter being a sister of Sabrina Ellen. Silas and Mary F. Malott were living in Eagle Township, Brown County, in 1850, but a year or so later moved to Lafayette County, Wisconsin. (See below).

Rebecca Ann Malott - b. in Lafayette County, Wisconsin, June 26, 1854.

Oliver Malott - Wisconsin, Lafayette County (no dates)

Lora Alice Surguy (no dates)

Notes on concluding part of Malott Bible Records:

(1) Peter Malott, whose full name was James Peter Malott, was the second child of William and Jemima (Thomas) Malott. In 1850 the family of William and Jemima Malott was living in Liberty Township, Adams County, as is shown by the census for that year:

979 - 979	William Marlott (sic)	51	m.	farmer	$560	Ky.
	Jemmima "	48	f.			O.
	Silas "	25	m.			O.
	James Peter "	22	m.			O.
	Elizabeth "	20	f.			O.
	Rees T. "	18	m.			O.
	William H. "	14	m.			O.
	Rebecca M. "	10	f.			O.

#619^{2}

In 1860 William Malott was living in ~~Fincastle, Eagle~~ Jackson Township, Brown County, as shown by the census:

William Malott	(64) 62	m.	Ky.
Wm. H. "	24	m.	O.
Rebecca "	20	f.	O.

In ~~the same~~ Fincastle township (Eagle) is the following family:

#637^{2}

Silas Malott	37	m.	O.
Mary F. "	29	f.	Pa.
Sarah H. "	2	f.	O.
Hannah Wood	57	f.	Pa.
Elisha Wood	60	m.	"

From the above we can conclude that Jemima (Thomas) Malott died sometime between 1850 and 1860. Sometime after 1860 William Malott married married Elizabeth (Tumbleson) Ellrod, widow of Fauntleroy Ellrod, of Winchester, Adams County. The 1870 census of Adams County shows William Malott, aged 72, and Elizabeth Malott, aged 68, living in Winchester. William Malott died in Winchester, Oct. 6, 1878, leaving a will dated July 20, of that year, in which he devised Lot 3 in South Winchester and the house located on it to his wife Elizabeth. Actually, this lot had been the property of Fauntleroy Ellrod during his lifetime. Elizabeth (Tumbleson) Ellrod Malott died Nov. 6, 1878, "in her 78th year." They are buried in the Winchester Cemetery.

The membership roll of the Fincastle Church of Christ for March 16, 1856, lists the following:

Mary Ann Wood - deceased
Elisha Wood
Silas Malott
Peter Malott
Reese Malott
Wm. Harrison Malott
Suburne L. Malott - deceased, May 12, 1857

Of the above, Mary Ann Wood was Mary Ann (Liston) Wood, wife of Isaac Wood, and mother of Elisha Wood (see below). Suburne (Sabrina ?) L. Malott was possibly a daughter of William and Jemima (Thomas) Malott, born after the census of 1850.

1816, and the mother about the year 1825. Archibald was born in Lancaster County, Penn., August 17, 1779, and was married while residing in Hamilton County, this State, to Mary, daughter of William Shaw, who bore him the following sons and daughters—Nancy, born in 1800, and died at the age of eleven years; Jane, born October 18, 1802; Hugh, died in 1806; William S., born March 25, 1807; Archibald, born March 27, 1809; Thomas E., born March 15, 1811; Margaret, born December 5, 1813, and Robert, born January 10, 1818. Archibald, some years after settling in Brown County, purchased fifty acres of land adjoining the 200-acre tract before mentioned, the half of which his father had given him.

From the history of Clermont County, it appears that James Kain and his family were the first permanent settlers in Williamsburg Township; that in the year 1795 and the early part of 1796, the elder Kain had worked at this place, building a cabin in the village and clearing a considerable tract of land for Gen. Lytle on Kain Run, which was long afterward known as the "big field." The writer of the sketch of Williamsburg thus alludes to the pioneer, Archibald McLain, in the account given of the first settlement of that village: "In the summer of 1796, James Kain came here from Newtown, where he had settled several years previously, to build the first cabin, which was erected on Lot 43, where is now the residence of Adam C. Walker. He was accompanied by his daughter Mary, a young girl of a dozen years, and her companion, Mary Bunton, who did the cooking for the workmen employed on the cabin; and these, it is claimed, were the first white women who came to reside in the eastern part of the present county of Clermont. James Kain occupied his house in the fall of 1796, and his family was moved from Newtown in an old-fashioned Conestoga wagon, by Archibald McLain, who followed mere bridle-paths, which often made it necessary to form wider roads, so that the trip occupied several days. The king-bolt of this wagon, probably the first that was ever used in the county, is yet in the possession of the McLain family." Mr. McLain was an Elder in the Old-School Presbyterian Church in the village of Williamsburg. In 1806, he united with the Presbyterian Church in Felicity (then named Smyrna), and in 1808, when a Presbyterian Church was first organized at Williamsburg, he was ordained one of its first Elders. His death occurred October 19, 1855. He was a member of the church forty-nine years and an Elder forty-seven. During this long period, his walk and conversation were becoming the Gospel. He was a useful citizen, a kind, accommodating neighbor and an affectionate husband and father.

Of the sons of Archibald McLain, William S. married Sarah Everhart, of Clermont County, a daughter of Daniel Everhart, from Virginia, who settled at Williamsburg in 1809, and was in his day one of the most prominent business men of the village. William S. is a resident of that village and is well known throughout this region of the country, where he has done extensive surveying. Archibald married Phebe Ross, and resides on the home farm. A sketch of him appears elsewhere in this work. Thomas E. married Mary Hiles, and removed to Pike Township, this county, where he died in 1863. Robert married Ann Collins. Of the daughters, Jane married Thomas, son of John Kain, one of the first settlers of Williamsburg, and Margaret married B. Wharton. On the McLain farm are standing two thrifty apple trees that were set out by the pioneer Hugh McLain about the year 1800.

Absalom Day, a native of the State of New Jersey, was born April 7, 1773, and when a boy not out of his teens, came with his parents, Jeremiah and Sarah (Dod) Day, to Ohio, stopping for a time at Columbia, at the mouth of the Little Miami River, then removed to Williamsburg, arriving in 1796, and received one of the ten lots given by Gen. Lytle to the first ten settlers of the village. The father, Jeremiah Day, was a native of England. Absalom, while at Columbia, married Elizabeth, daughter of George Earhart, who was born in Chester County, Penn., May 30, 1776, and to them were born the following named children: Mary, born January 28, 1797; Sarah, born December 1, 1798; Elizabeth, born September 25, 1800; Samuel, born November 16, 1802; Susannah, born June 20, 1806; Katie Ann, born September 2, 1808; Joseph, born January 19, 1811; Aaron, born September 13, 1812; Sophia, born July 20, 1814; David E., born December 28, 1815; Absalom, born December 26, 1817, and Anna J., born June 20, 1822. Father Day, after residing at Williamsburg for two or three years, removed to a tract of land in the western part of what is now Sterling Township, Brown County (on the present site of the post office of De La Palma). He died February 17, 1839, aged sixty-five years ten months and ten days. His wife died September 4, 1843, in her sixty-eighth year. They were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church and worshiped at Clover, in what is now Clermont County, in the earliest existence of the society at that place; and later, the Day residence was the preaching point for years in that locality.

Of the seven daughters of this couple, Mary married William Day; Sarah married Daniel Ready; Elizabeth married Jacob Waits; Susannah married John Coulter; Katie Ann married Benjamin Reed; Sophia married William Weeks, and Mary J. died unmarried. The sons were married as follows: Samuel to Miriam Hayward, a native of Virginia, both are now residing in Green Township, this county: Joseph to —— ———; Aaron to Julia Mowry; David died unmarried, and Absalom to Caroline Willey. Mary and Sarah Day were born at Williamsburg, the others in Brown County.

The families of John Anderson and Moses Leonard settled in what is now Sterling Township in 1799 or 1800, both purchasing land in the J. Harvie Survey, No. 3,344. They were brothers-in-law, and emigrated to Ohio together a year or two before settling as described. They came from New Jersey to Pittsburgh by land, and thence down the Ohio River by boat, and landed at the mouth of the Little Miami, where they remained until their removal to this vicinity. Mr. Anderson was a native of Maryland, born February 10, 1773. His wife was Martha Wood, a native of Greene County, Penn., and their children were Margaret, born May 16, 1797, and married Moses Warden; Eliza, born March 11, 1799, and married William Boyd; William, born February 8, 1801, and married Eliza Shannon, of Clermont County; Amelia, born September 20, 1804, and married Paul Stricklin, of Clermont County; Nancy, born September 17, 1806, and married Robert Justus; Thomas W., born March 12, 1809, and married Lovisa Pittser; Macajah, born July 24, 1811; John T., born September 30, 1813, and Hiram C., born May 16, 1815, and married Rebecca Black. The latter now resides on the homestead, where all the children were born and reared. The parents died, the father June 25, 1839, and the mother February 16, 1854, and were buried at Williamsburg.

Moses

Mr. Leonard was a Pennsylvanian by birth, and was married to Elizabeth Anderson. Their children were John, who was twice married—first, 1816 to Margaret Smith, and second, to b. 1798-1804 Mrs. Sarah Smallwood, a widow; Elizabeth, who married Andrew Smith; Hannah, Casey, Aaron, Levi, b. 1807 Georges and Ellen. Hannah married 1824 Jacob Mason, of Williamsburg; Casey married Frances Holeman; Aaron married Elizabeth Perrine; Levi married Mary A. Hickey, of Clermont County, and died on the homestead December 14, 1872, in the sixty-sixth year of his age; George married Mary Amos, of Cincinnati, and Ellen married John M. Shotwell. The last two are the only survivors of the immediate family.

Moses Leonard was at the battle of Brandywine in the capacity of a wagoner. His death occurred January 9, 1844, aged eighty-four years, nine months and twenty-four days, and that of his wife July 11, 1834, in her sixty-first year. John Leonard served in the war of 1812.

In 1799 or 1800, George Earhart, a German, settled on land in the southern part of the township, south of the tract purchased by John Anderson. He, with his family, came from Pennsylvania, and landed with the Days at Columbia, and thence removed, as stated above, to the vicinity of the Andersons. His wife was Elizabeth Fanchon. The oldest son, John Earhart, stopped at Williamsburg, where he remained as a permanent settler, and proved himself a great addition to the settlement, as he became the plow-maker of the neighborhood. His skill in making wooden mold-boards was very great, and his work was in good demand. He was also a cooper and a handy and useful man generally. His sons—John, George and Samuel—became well-known citizens.

Other children of George Earhart were Huldah, Tryphena, Mary, Sanford, Sarah, Samuel and Peggie.

In the latter part of the eighteenth century, the Boyd family emigrated from Ireland and settled in Bucks County, Penn., but not content there, soon removed to land adjoining the city of Lexington, Ky. The parents were John and Mary. Samuel, a son, was married while in Pennsylvania to Abigail Stewart, and with a family of nine children, emigrated from his Kentucky home, in March, 1804, and settled in Survey No. 3,622. He had two years previously been here and made a purchase of 400 acres of land in the southern part of the survey named, of Archibald McIlvain. The sons and daughters were John, William, Robert, Samuel, James, Jane, Martha, Mary, Elizabeth and Nancy, of whom Jane was born on the Ohio River while en route to Kentucky, and James, the youngest, was born here; all the others were born in Kentucky. The father was a resident of the township until his death, which occurred suddenly by apoplexy, while in Clermont County, in May, 1825. He was identified with the Presbyterian Church at the neighboring village of Williamsburg. The daughter Jane was married to James McGavi, John to Shelamith Reece, William to Eliza Anderson (Robert died young), Martha to Ephraim McAdams, of Clermont County, whose family were very early settlers at Williamsburg. Mary was married three times, first, to John Hays; second, to Jacob Willis, and third, to William Cobb; Samuel to Margaret Everhart, Elizabeth to James McAdams (Nancy died single), and James was twice married; first, to Serena South, and second to Sarah McDonald, and is the only survivor of the Boyd family. He resides on the homestead, where nearly three-quarters of a century have been passed, and about which cluster the recollections of nearly as many years. William and John Boyd were both in the war of 1812; the latter served as a Lieutenant.

The Waits brothers, James and Charles, emigrating from the Redstone country in Pennsylvania, settled in Kentucky, on the North Fork of the Licking River, in the spring of 1794, and in 1802, removed to Ohio and made permanent settlements on Four Mile Creek, in the western part of Sterling, near what is now the Clermont County line. James farmed his land until about the year 1838, when he sold it to Ira Willey and passed the remainder of his life with his son Jacob, who resided near the center of the township. Other sons and daughters of James Waits were John, Charles, Peter, William, David, Richard, James and Nancy (twins), Sarah, Christina and Elizabeth. The father died March 2, 1855, aged ninety-five years, and the mother July 14, 1856, aged ninety-four years. Charles was a soldier of the Revolutionary war, and for services rendered drew a pension from the Government. Three of the sons, Charles, Peter and John were in the war of 1812; two of them, Charles

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

Because you were instrumental in encouraging me to research the Slack family I thought you would be interested in my latest find.

This past week I received a letter from Roberta Dayman of the Bucks County, Pa. Genealogical Society that she had found that Daniel Slack lived at 12 Brown St. Northern Liberties in 1807; that he was married to Mary Lusheard in St. Pauls Church Aug 25,1792; that he was born June 27, 1769; that he had an adult baptism at St. Pauls by Rev. Ashbel Green, of Campington, No. Liberties; Aug. 10, 1794.; That he had the following children:

John born aug. 10, 1796
Amos born April 24,1799
Uriah born Dec. 23, 1801
Mary died June 6, 1822.

Hist. Soc. of PA
1300 Locust St.
Phila, PA 19107

no mention of Absalom but Amos had a son named Uriah

I know that this conflicts with the history account of Beers that Elizabeth Howell was the wife and mother but the birthdates of John and Amos check with the dates in the history and the account you sent to me. The material revealing the above was found in the records of St. Pauls Church in Philadelphia. The book is in the PA Historical Society. and the items can be found on PP115. 116, 146, 160, 461.

Colonial Philadelphia Hist. Soc. 2 92 St. James Place, Phila. PA 19106

The intriguing thing about this is that I had found a Daniel Slack in the western portinn of Sommersett county N. J. along with a James Slackand Richard Slack in the Tax Ratable lists published in "New Jersey in 1793, by J. S. Norton P 401.

I also found a Daniel Slack mentioned in "N. J. in the Rev." Vol III N. J. Archives. He was on the plantation of Andrew Mershon near Burlington. May 5, 1779

Then in a research document ~~sent to me~~ by the Media Research Bureau sent by Mrs. Nancy Nullisch of Dallas, Tex as, I found this "In the early eighteenth century three brothers surnamed Slack emigrated from Holland . One of these was Abraham who removed to Bucks County, Pa. and is said to have left four children, Abraham, Cornelius, James and Sarah. Another of these brothers, James, is said to have married Elizabeth Price, of Jew Jersey and to have been the father of : Richard, James, Rachel and Daniel."

Of course we know that Abraham was the son of Cornelius Slecht who emmigrated from Hollanf in 1652. We know this from Davis' History of Bucks County and several other sources.

The job remaining is to document that our Daniel in Northern Liberties is the son of James but dates seem to coincide.

I hope you will have some use for this information or that it can be passed on to other Slack researchers.

Thank you for all past favors.

Sincerely,
Earl V Thesken

P.S. I forgot to mention that in your early correspondence you mentioned a James Slack buried on the Amos Slack lot in Higginsport. EVT

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

I wrote to you somtime ago at your former address and had the letter returned saying they had no forwarding address. I finally obtained your present address from the secretary.

My reason for contacting you has become much more important than it was when I first wrote to you.

This summer while doing some research in the local public library I came across a reference to John Slack in the early purchases of land from the Miami University grant. About the same time I saw the biography of James E. Slack in the Clermont Co, History. That article stated that James was sent to live with his grandfather in Oxford, O, when his father died in 1824. The grandfather was John Slack. I started to dig for the background of John with a vengeance becaus e I remembered that you were interested in finding out about James Slack whose children were buried on the Slack lot.

About the same time I had had some correspondence with a lady in Dallas, Tx. about John Slack who was one of her ancestors. I wrote to her about all of the new material I had found and in a few days she replied with material that solved all of my problems. She had found a bookabout the Slacks: "Cornelius Barentse Slecht and some of his Descendants" by Laurence T. Slaght. She had zeroxed several pages that she thought pretinent to my search. In them I found that Daniel Slack was the brother of John of Oxford and they were the sons of James and Rebecca Chamberlain Slack. That James was the son of James and Elizabeth (Price) Slack who in turn was a grandson of Henrik Cornilese Slecht. Of course you remember that Cornielese was the Dutch immigrant to Long Island settled in Flatbush, Brooklyn. 1652.

I have made up an ancestor chart that I am sending to you along with the material on John and Daniel that I have found. Perhaps you already have found all of the above but I remembered how much you helped me in the start of my Genealogy search I felt that I must share this with you.

I was surprised that in the spring bulletin for Brown Co, Genealogical Soc that the Slack name was not included in their surname listing. When I finish writing my history of the family I will send a copy to you which you can give to the society if you so choose.

Thank you for all of the help you have given me.

Sincerely,
Earl V Thesken

that is where he belongs." He noted the relatively small population on Staten Island at that time and the concentration of Woglums, Wrights, Coles, Winants, Johnsons, and Sleights in the district of Blazing Star (now Rossville).

86. Richard Slaght, son of Henry Slack (30), was doubtless born in Kingswood Township, Hunterdon County, N.J. He married Rebeckah Anderson, daughter of John Anderson of Hopewell, Hunterdon County, N.J. She died 17 March 1773. (N.J. Gen. Soc. 22-8, 23-82).

Richard's will, dated 1773, is particularly noteworthy for the variety of spelling of the family. The most frequent spellings used are: Slaght, Slaught, and Slaugh. When Richard Slaght died, he left four sons under 21 and three daughters under 18. These children were (N.J. Wills, Hunterdon 15-488):

205. John Anderson
206. Henry — (see N.J. Wills Archives 12-341. Served in the Hunterdon County Militia 1792, 1794.
208. Jeminey
209. Mary
210. Anne

87. Philip Schlaut, son of Henry Slack (30), was born in Kingwood, Hunterdon County, N.J. He lived at Alexandria, Hunterdon Co., N.J. and was chosen elder of the Alexandria German Reformed Church on at least two occasions 1763 and 1771. Philip Schlaut married Maria Anna __________ and they had at least four children (Alexandria German Reformed Church Records):

211. Hendrick — born 4 September 1763. Bapt. 10 October 1763.
212. Maria — confirmed 29 March 1769.
213. Cornelius — confirmed 19 May 1771. Possibly the father of Enoch of Washington, Warren County, N.J.
+214. Philip — confirmed 6 August 1775. Md. Elizabeth Schmidt (?).

91. Abraham Slack, son of Henry Slack (30), was born 15 May 1760 at Kingwood, Hunterdon County, N.J. He lived halfway between Baptistown and Croton, just to the right of Route 12. The school and cemetery on the property were known (in 1939) as the Independence School and Cemetery, Kingwood Township.

Abraham's wife's name was Mary. Her years were from 18 May 1764 to 11 April 1831. According to the youngest daughter, Rhoda, who copied the information into her Bible (which was in the possession of her son Justus L. Moore of Flemington, N.J. in 1939), these were the children:

215. Henry — born 31 October 1782. Died 27 July 1855.
216. Mary — born 5 February 1784.
217. Jane — born 23 September 1785. Md. William Burd. Died 28 November 1876.
218. Elizabeth — born 9 July 1787. Md. ________ Snyder. Died 22 May 1872.
219. Samuel — born 23 March 1789. Died 15 November 1857.
220. Permelia — born 19 July 1791.
221. James — born 23 March 1793. Died 16 March 1881.
222. Elnathan — born 6 September 1795. Married Elizabeth Sutton. Died 29 October 1834. His will is to be found in the Warren County Court House at Belvidere, N.J. (1-279). His wife, Elizabeth, is named, no children.
223. Mary — born 11 August 1799. Married ________ Britton. Died 28 May 1868.

224. George — born 18 January 1803. Apparently George was the Administrator of his father's estate (Letter of Administration, Hunterdon County 4-49).
225. John — born 13 November 1805.
226. Abraham — born 19 June 1807.
227. Rhoda — born 8 June 1810. Md. Daniel Moore. Died 15 March 1893.

94. James Slack, son of James Slack (31), was born in New Jersey and lived out his life in Hunterdon County, his place of birth. In the Hopewell, N.J. town records, James Slack is listed as one of the overseers of highways (1762, p. 28). Similarly, he records a black heifer, two years old past, marked with a crop in the near ear and a half penny under the side of same (1760, p. 102). His will, or at least a legal document concerning his property, is dated 17 April 1773 (Trenton Wills 14-523, Hunterdon 1773).

James Slack married Rebecca Chamberlain of Amwell, N.J., the daughter of Lewis and Lucreshe Chamberlain (See Hopewell Records, p. 138). She died 1776 and her will is dated 5 March 1776 (Trenton Wills 16-497, Hunterdon, 1776). The children of James and Rebecca Slack were:

+229. Daniel 7/6/1764 md Mary Lushead + Elizabeth Hawell Hemlinch

96. Daniel Slack, son of James Slack (31), was born in Hunterdon County, N.J. The year of his birth has not been established, although one authority (Cooley) states it to have been in 1755. This seems a too late date, since his wife was born in 1744 and the oldest son (of record) was born in 1769. There is some evidence that he was a soldier in the American Revolution.

COUSINS

The Hopewell Town Records give only scanty data concerning Daniel. On one occasion he recorded "One horse culler (!) a dark brown" (p. 113). The year of this notation would have been in the late 1760's or early '70's.

Daniel Slack married Sarah Mershon, probably the daughter of Andrew Mershon of Hopewell, Hunterdon County, N.J. (N.J. Wills 8-251). He died 19 September 1811 and she died 12 October 1817 (D.A.R. Ref. Book 249, N.J. Hist. Soc.). They are buried in the Ewing, N.J. Presbyterian Cemetery.

The will for Daniel Slack may be found at the Court House in Flemington, N.J. Its year of validation was 1811. Sons James and Andrew are to be the executors and daughter Frances receives mention (Will Book 2-134).

The children of record born to Daniel and Sarah Slack were:

+231. James — born 1769. Md. Nancy Carpenter. Died 5 September 1832.
232. Francina — born 1771. Died 5 December 1825.
+233. Andrew — born 1784. Md. Letitia Reeder.

97. Benjamin Slack, son of Benjamin Slack (32), was no doubt born at Lawrenceville, Mercer Co., N.J. His father and grandfather lived there before him and he is buried in the Lawrenceville Cemetery (D.A.R. 249, N.J. Hist. Soc.). He died 27 November 1833. His wife died 27 June 1844. She was born in 1772. Benjamin Slack's will may be found in Flemington, N.J. (Hunterdon County Will Book 6-135).

The children of Benjamin and Ann Slack were:

He had at least two children:

461. James
462. Amos

230. John Slack, son of James Slack (94), was born at Hopewell, Hunterdon (now Mercer) Co., N.J. He married Mary Palmer of Reading, Pa. From 1780-1794, the family lived at Newtown, Bucks Co., Pa. They then moved to Western Pennsylvania, Greene County, where they remained until 1807. The following 3 years found them in Ohio, near Cincinnati. From 1810 onward, John Slack called Oxford, Butler Co., Ohio home (Simpson Notes.)

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and served as elder.

The children of John and Mary Slack were (at least):

465. Amos — born 1800. Died 1823. Unmarried.

She died in Oxford, Butler Co., Ohio, 1855. The children of John and Anna Smith were: John, Anna (David Winder), Mary (William Ronald), Arabella (Ozias P. Smith). (Matlack Notes).

231. James Slack, son of Daniel Slack (96), was born in Hopewell, Hunterdon (now Mercer) Co., N.J. He was born in 1769 and on 28 April 1795 married Nancy Carpenter (Hunterdon Co. Marriages). He was a member of the Hunterdon County Militia and served as a soldier in the suppression of the Pennsylvania Insurrections of 1794. He lies buried in the Ewing Presbyterian Cemetery, Ewing, N.J. (D.A.R. 249 in N.J. Hist. Soc.).

James and Nancy (1768-1852) Slack had children as follows (Cooley Ref.):

233. Andrew Slack, son of Daniel Slack (96), was born in Hopewell, Hunterdon (now Mercer) Co., N.J. The year was 1784. He married Letitia Reeder, daughter of James Reeder, whose years were 1788 - 20 November 1824.

Their children were:

475. Sarah

478. Amanda — born 1813. Died 20 March 1814. Buried Ewing Presbyterian Cemetery (D.A.R. 249, N.J. Hist. Soc.).

250. Thomas Slack, son of Thomas Slack (99), was probably born in Monmouth County, N.J. He married Julia Dawson who was born 24 January 1827. Their children were (Slack Family 206):

479. Anna A.
480. Amy
481. Rebecca
482. James W. (or M.) — lived at Bristol, Pa.

252. John Slack, son of Cornelius Slack (101), was born in Lower Makefield Township, Bucks Co., Pa. His wife's name was Frances. He died intestate, but a Letter of Administration was dated November 1820. Lamb Torbert, his brother-in-law was made administrator. One painful necessity was that his land was sold to pay his debts (Bucks Let. of Ad. 5-467 and 468).

John and Frances Slack had children as follows:

483. Jane — md. John Haskins 24 October 1815 (Pa. Gen. Soc. 3-216).
484. Daniel
485. Sarah
486. John
487. Amelia — a minor but over 14 years of age at father's death.
488. Rachel — a minor under 14 years of age at father's death.

254. David Slack, son of Cornelius Slack (101), was born in Lower Makefield Township, Bucks Co., Pa. (One source gives David as son to Joseph (103), but we have chosen to follow Davis in his exhaustive "History of Bucks County.") David married Jane Worthington of Buckingham, Bucks Co. and settled near Wycombe, Bucks Co. in 1818. In 1837, he purchased a farm in Northampton and lived there some 10 years when he returned to Buckingham. He died at Wrightstown, Pa., 30 August 1863.

The Slack family of Makefield are descendants of John and Abraham Slack, grandsons of Hendrick Cornelisse Slecht, who emigrated from Holland in 1652 and settled on Long Island. Abraham, born 1722, settled in Lower Makefield. He first occupied the farm in the northeast corner of the township on the Delaware, subsequently owned by William Pfaff, deceased, but afterward moved to the farm immediately north and adjoining, recently owned by a Smith. He lived there many years and died 1802. Slack's island, in the Delaware, was named after him. He probably married soon after his arrival, and his children were Abraham, Cornelius, James and Sarah, all of whom married and left descendants. Abraham, the elder son, left but three children, who are deceased, and their descendants live in Philadelphia. The second son, Cornelius, died 1828, leaving a number of children, some recently living, among them Mrs. James Larue, Lower Makefield, Mrs. Charles Young, Edgewood, and Mrs. Balderston, Newtown. James, the third son, born in 1756, died on his farm, 1832, at the age of seventy-six, leaving one daughter, Alice, and three sons, Abraham, Elijah and James. Sarah, the daughter of Abraham the elder, married Moses Kelley, whose descendants are to be found in Newtown, Fallsington and Philadelphia. The late Mrs. Jane Harvey, wife of Joseph Harvey, of Newtown, and Doctor Lippincott, Philadelphia, husband of Grace Greenwood, were two of her descendants. Abraham, the elder son of James, died 1835, leaving a large family of children, several of whom reside in Bucks county. Among them are Samuel M. Slack, Upper Makefield, John Slack Keith, Newtown, and Elijah T. Slack, Philadelphia. Abraham's descendants married into the families of Rich, Stevens, Torbert, Emery, McNair, etc. Elijah Slack, second son of James, graduated at Princeton, studied divinity, was licensed as a Presbyterian minister and removed to Cincinnati, 1817, where he died 1868, leaving a large family of children, most of whom live in the southern states. The daughter Alice married David McNair, Newtown township, and died 1830, leaving six children, a number of whose descendants live in the county. James, the youngest son of Abraham the second, familiarly known in the lower end of the county as Captain Slack, resided on the farm where his father died until 1837, when he immigrated to Indiana, and settled on White river, Delaware county, where his wife died in 1845, and he in 1847. He left six sons and three daughters, of whom but three survive: Doctor George W. Slack, of Delaware county, Indiana, Anthony T. Slack, Independence, Missouri, and James R. Slack, Indiana. The latter went to Huntingdon, Indiana, 1840, with his license as an attorney in his pocket, and began life in the wilderness. In turn he was schoolmaster, clerk in the county-clerk's office, county auditor, and State Senator. On the breaking out of the Civil War he espoused the cause of the Union, raised the forty-seventh Indiana regiment, of which he was appointed Colonel. He participated in most of the campaigns and battles in the West, from Island No. 10 in March, 1862, to the surrender of Mobile, April, 1865. He was appointed brigadier-general, 1864, and brevet major-general, March, 1865, for gallantry in the field. In October, 1873, he was elected judge of the Twenty-eighth Judicial district by eight hundred majority, in a district in which the Republican candidate for President had one thousand two hundred majority in 1872.

7 General Slack died at Chicago, suddenly, July 28, 1881, from a stroke of paralysis. He was buried at Huntingdon, his home, the following Sunday, July 31, followed to the grave by a very large concourse of mourning relatives and friends. Distinguished men were present from all parts of the state, and the sermon and eulogies pronounced over his remains bespeak the high esteem in which General Slack was held.

JOHN SLACK

On page 508 of the History of Butler County, O. it states that there were squatters along the bottoms of Four Mile Creek in 1806. They were: Robert Taylor; Ed. Lytle; Henry Hall; David Lee; Beeler Bros. and a Mr. Perkins; and John Slack. They were called squatters because this was part of the township designated for Miami University and titles for the land they had worked had not been approved by Congress.

John Slack came to the Oxford Area from Greene County, Pennsylvania. He was born about 1762 in Hopewell, N. J. to James Slack and Rachel Chamberlain the daughter of Lewis and Lucreesh Chamberlain of Amwell, N. J. John was the great, great grandson of Henrick Cornieliese Slecht who came to Long Island in 1662 and settled in what is now known as Flatbush in Brooklyn. He was from Holland as was his wife Elsje Barentse Lieveling. Their son, Cornelius Barentse Slecht had among other children three sons, Abraham, John and James who migrated to New Jersey and Pennsylvania. James was the grandfather of John Slack and he married Elizabeth Price of Hopewell., Hunterdon Co. (now Mercer Co.) ,31 May 1732

James and Elizabeth had sons James and Daniel. James married Rachel Chamberlain as stated previously and had sons John (the one we are considering here) and Daniel (who will be considered further) John married Mary Palmer daughter of John Palmer of Reading, Pa. John and Mary lived in Newtown, Bucks Co. Pa. from 1780 to 1794. Then they moved to Greene County Pa. where they lived unti 1806. The next move was to The home in Butler Co. mentioned in the beginning of this writing.

When the State proceeded to sell the University lands on 99 year leases John like several others of his neighbors bought lots as they were auctioned. John purchased lots as follows: 1810 LOt 3 in Sec. 22; Lot 6 in sec.17; in 1814 Lot 2 in Sec. 20; At an early date John purchased Inn Lot # 173 which is located at the corner of High and College Sts. N. W. . This is where he made his home for the remaining years. There are entries showing his participation in the town affairs and also that he was a presbyterian elder in the early church.

John and Mary had the following children:

1. Joshua born in 1790 became a Baptist Minister, married Sarah Bonnel and was active in pioneering higher education in Cincinnati.

DEATH OF A PIONEER.

James E. Slack, of Moscow, Passes Away, After a Long and Useful Life.

Courier readers and the citizens of Clermont and adjoining counties, will learn with regret, of the death of James E. Slack, a pioneer of Brown county, but for the last 35 years a resident of Clermont. The deceased was one of our most progressive citizens and a man in whom was embodied all that is honorable and admirable. He passed through many vicissitudes, but overcoming all the obstacles that beset the pathway of youth, and often bar the way to independence and happiness, he reached a frosty but kindly old age, and in his 79th year laid down to calm repose.

James Ellis Slack was born at Georgetown, Ohio, November 9, 1820. Losing his father at the age of four years, he was taken by his grandparents at Oxford until his tenth year, when on account of their death he returned to his mother in Brown county. Here the lot of the rugged pioneer was his portion, working on farms in summer and clearing the forests in winter until he was twenty years of age, during which time he obtained but three months in school. He then bought land near Russelville, and by hard labor and strict economy paid for it, but only to find the title invalid, when it must be lost or paid for over again. At this crisis of his life, when he was strongly threatened by that cruel law of imprisonment for debt, the kindness and unexpected confidence of a friend in furnishing him the necessary funds, saved his home and helped to establish in him two notable characteristics—first, sympathy for and a desire to aid worthy young men. His memory will long be cherished by many who have received inspiration and a helping hand in their days of trial. Second, a firm resolution to meet promptly every obligation so that it could be said of him, indeed, that his word was as good as his bond. This earned for him an honored reputation that was a great satisfaction through a long and eventful business life, and is now left a legacy to his children and friends that they may well be proud of. At the age of 29 he was married to Sarah Ellis, of Georgetown, with whom he lived happily for 22 years. To them were born seven children, four of whom survive him: Clay H. Slack, lawyer of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Perry, of Galveston, Austin, of San Antonio, Texas, and Mrs. Addie Reed, of Williamsburg. He was deprived of the solacing companionship of the three sons in his last hours, by reason of the great distance, which separated them. After the death of his wife he was again married in 1873, to Arabella Porter, who survives him after a happy life of 26 years. Her tender care was his solace and comfort. He peacefully departed this life June 6, 1899, aged 78 years and 7 months, after a lingering illness of many months, which was borne with a most touching patience and even cheerfulness, his one object seeming to be how he could be the least possible trouble. In fact his whole life seems to have been an exemplification of the Master's words, "I came into the world not to be ministered unto but to MINSTER!"

THE BAND CONCERTS.

—Batavians and many others who were present from a distance greatly enjoyed the promenade concert given by the Clermont military band last Saturday night. The programme was most attractive, consisting of many fine numbers, new and old, all extremely well rendered. On this occasion an admission fee of one nickel was charged, to pay for the placing of seats, lights, etc., but hereafter the concerts are to be free, the commissioners having generously permitted the use of the court-house park, for the public benefit. These concerts are a source of absolute pleasure and profit to the town. They fill the streets with bright young people, passing to and fro to the merry measures of the music; the town and park are bright with lights and full of the sound of happy voices. The projector of the scheme may well be regarded as a public benefactor. On Saturday evening of this week, however, the public will be compelled to forego the pleasure of this most welcome treat, as upon that occasion the young men will play at the great mass meeting in Amelia, the object of which is to secure the balance of subscriptions necessary for the erection of a shoe manufacturing plant in that place. Mr. Jamieson, the leader of the band, has secured several new pieces of music, and several old arrangements also, both of which will afford pleasure, since the old airs possess an attraction that will never die. It is the design of the band to raise a fund to aid in paying for uniforms, etc., and to this our citizens are contributing most liberally. All appreciate the service. No affair has given so much pleasure nor promises more, than these delightful concerts.

PEARLS OF GREAT PRICE.

An Industry that Promises Wealth to Some and Wages to all.

Herman Myers, an expert in pearls and precious stones, and who makes frequent trips to the West for the purpose of buying gems to fill eastern and foreign orders, was in Batavia one day last week. His present business in Ohio is to stimulate the pearl fishing industry in Ohio streams. Speaking of the possibilities in this line Mr. Myers said to the Courier: "It is surprising to me that comparatively so few Ohio people realize, to an extent at all the vast importance of the pearl fisheries of their State. Pearls of value are found in almost every stream, the Little Miami and its tributaries being by far the most productive. H. H. Harris, a prominent farmer near Waynesville, recently found a pearl which is valued at $600. His entire collection was recently sold in the New York market. The pearls are found in the mussels and are secured by wading. The creatures are thrown out upon the bank, the ligaments are cut and the shells are opened. One pearl is found in approximately every 1000 mussels, and yet a man can easily earn an average of $3 per day by devoting his time to pearl fishing. The season for operating is short, for the water must be low, and of course the work cannot be carried on in cold weather. I

Chew Napper tobacco. It's good. je14t2

Mrs. Samuel McAdoo, of Toronto, Ohio, has been the pleasant guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Manning.

All are invited to attend the lawn fete next Friday evening, to be given at the home of Hon. G. W. Hulick and wife.

Bicycle riders, football players and athletes generally, find a sovereign remedy for the sprains and bruises and cuts to which they are constantly liable in Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil.

One of the handsomest railroad folders we have seen in many a day has recently been issued by the C., G. and P. people. It contains many beautiful views along the line of road, and is artistic in every particular.

The New Richmond Independent News came out in a bright new dress last week, presenting a handsome appearance. In fact, it is greatly improved in every respect, having added, among other things, a new press and folder combined.

Judge John S. Parrott attended the Odd Fellows' memorial service at Mt. Pisgah, last Sunday afternoon, and delivered an excellent address to the members of that fraternity. He was accompanied by Miss Louis and Master Robert.

Mr. P. Ketcham, of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by Dr. John Bunn.

The next meeting of the Woman's Club, of Batavia, will be held at the residence of Mrs. A. W. Ashburn, Saturday afternoon, June 17th, at 2:30 o'clock. All ladies desirous of becoming members will be welcome at this meeting. The program will consist of parliamentary drill led by Mrs. Allen Glancy.

Dr. Lon Bunn, of this place, will be married to-morrow (Thursday) to Miss Lena Wilson, of Neoga, Ill. Miss Wilson is the accomplished daughter of a prominent druggist and stock grower of the latter city. Dr. Bunn made the acquaintance of his bride-to-be at Oxford where they both attended college. They will visit Batavia relatives the latter part of this week.

The second open-air concert given by the Clermont Military Band Saturday evening was a most enjoyable occasion. The band consists of twenty-two members and is one of the best the county has ever had. The boys make splendid music, and play as well

Death of a Pioneer.

James E. Slack, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of Southern Clermont, recently died at his home near Moscow. Born in 1820, he was in his seventy-ninth year at the time of his death. He was a rugged pioneer and in his younger days devoted his time to hard labor such as clearing off the forests in winter and working on the farm in summer. A widow and four children survive him, Clay H., of Minneapolis, Minn.; Perry, of Galveston, Texas; Austin, of San Antonio, Texas, and Mrs. Addie Reed, of Williamsburg.

A Peculiar Case.

Last Friday a son of Nicholas Welmer, of near Summerside, was brought before the Probate Court and adjudged insane. His case is a peculiar one and is said to have been caused when he was a mere child by some one coming before him wearing a false-face. A few days afterwards he showed signs of epilepsy, which has constantly grown on him ever since.

Br.Co.,OH Deed V21:336 Daniel Slack + w/of Elizabeth of Philadelphia Co., PA by hs attorney Amos Slack of Br. Co., OH to Winston L. Lain 20 Mar. 1846 recorded 17 apr. 1846 67A Edward Lynn Survey #1375.

AMOS P. SLACK

Amos P. Slack was the third son of Daniel and Mary Lusheard Slack born 24 April 1799 in East North Liberties, Philadelphia, Pa. He was baptised in the 2nd Presbyterian Church in Kensington by Rev. Asbell Green 25 August 1799. He was enrolled in the schools of Philadelphia and also received his training in his trade as a stone cutter.

When about eighteen years of age he along with soem other cousins migrated to Ohio. Apparently they juorneyed down the Ohio river because we know that Amos P. settled at Aberdeen a pioneer town in Brown County, Ohio and across the river from Maysville, Ky. There is some evidence to cause speculation that his brother John accompanied him on this trip. There was a John Slack married to Jane Caldwell of Virginia whose son Wm. Y. Slack was born in Maysville August 1, 1816. He later was a Confederate General who died a hero's death at the battle of Pea Ridge. A cousin Elijah Slack,qwho was a professor of Natural Sciences at Princeton University arrived in Cincinnati that same year. A brother of Amos' father, John Slack had settled in Butler Co. Ohio near Oxford in 1807. In any event Amos settled in Aberdeen where he met Lucretia Wilson who was a native of Aberdeen. She was born June 4, 1806. Her father Job Wilson was born December 19, 1774 in Maryland. He was the possible son of Benjamin Wilson and Lydia Job. Amos P. married Lucretia 5 January 1826. There is a record in the Aberdeen Ct. House of a land transaction between Amos & Lucretia Jane Slack and Job Wilson for a small parcell outside the town of Aberdeen. Later Amos P. and his family moved to a farm in Lewis Township on WhiteOak Creek. They lived there most of their lives. There was a two year period when Amos P. went to Texas. There is no record of the date or with whom he made the journey. Mostly he farmed and worked at his trade as a stone cutter. They belonged to the Christian Church on Shinkles Ridge where Elder Gardner was the minister.

The children of Amos P. and Lucretia Jane were:

1. Eliza born 5 November 1826
2. Daniel born 1828
3. Amos born 5 August 1831
4. Mary Ann 1832
5. James F. born 24 August 1834
6. Jane Born 1835
7. William C.
8. Susan 13 Jan. 1838
9. Uriah 12 February 1842
10. George Washington 1845
11. Naomi 1848

The last two years of his life Amos P. spent in Foster, Ky. He died 19 October 1859 after an illness that lasted five years. Lucretia Jane lived in Higginsport, O. 26 August 1881. when she died while living with G. D. Ham and William Slack. She was 75.

Amos P. Slack was a first cousin to James Slack who married Mary Ellis 16 Mar. 1820. James was the son of John Slack a brother to Daniel. James died in 1824. He lived on Shinkles Ridge along with Amos P. . Some of the James Slack children are buried next to Amos' wife Elizabeth Jane. James E. Slack the son eventually bought the Parker farm in Washington Twp. Clermont Co. O.

daughters: Bertha and Hettie, both now amiable and accomplished young ladies. When 9 years of age Herman Burg was sent to school at Youngstown, O., where he remained some years, going thence to Philadelphia, where he completed his education. He received thorough and careful training with the object of fitting himself for a mercantile experience, and in 1876 returned to Chillicothe and for a time was engaged as a traveling salesman. In 1882, in connection with his cousin, Joseph Wallbrunn, he established the Palace of Fashion, a wholesale and retail millinery and ladies' furnishing goods emporium, one of the best appointed and most attractive establishments of the kind in Northern Missouri. The firm carries a large and varied stock, and receives a most liberal share of public favor. In 1884 he opened the well known dining hall and confectionery store called the Silver Moon Restaurant. Although a young man, Herman Burg has long been recognized as identified with the business interests of the city, and has taken an active part in every measure of enterprise for its good. Public spirited, liberal minded and generous in disposition, and active, energetic and intelligent by nature, his career has been successful and honorable, and his future is full of promise.

GEN. WILLIAM Y. SLACK.

William Yarnell Slack was born in Mason county, Ky., August 1, 1816. His father, John Slack, was a native of Pennsylvania, and his mother, Jane Caldwell, a native of Virginia. In 1819 John Slack removed from Kentucky to Missouri, settling in what is now the western or northwestern portion of Boone county, then Howard. He was a potter by trade, and was the first justice of the peace in his township. His fellow-citizens regarded him with great esteem, as a man of sober, sound judgment and high character.

Wm. Y. Slack received a common school education, and in early life began the study of law under Hon. J. B. Gordon, at Columbia, where he was admitted to the bar. At that time Columbia was well supplied with first-class lawyers, and young Slack concluded to locate in one of the new counties. In March, 1839, when but 22 years of age, he came to Livingston county and settled at Chillicothe, which locality was ever afterward his home. In April, 1839, he was admitted to practice in the circuit court of this county, and at once entered on a career of success and distinction. Business came to him unsolicited. His strong good sense, his knowledge of human nature, his calm conservatism, and his genuine legal ability were soon perceived, and he gained the general confidence of the people. In time it came about that he was engaged on one side of every important legal controversy in Livingston county, and his counsel and assistance were sought in the other counties of this judicial circuit.

In 1842 he was elected as a Democrat to represent this county in the State Legislature, and served in the 12th General Assembly. Although a strong partisan and after a time a prominent politician, known throughout the State, his political "work" was afterwards men under Col. Rives, and 700 infantry under Col. John T. Hughes and J. C. C. Thornton.

Gen. Slack bore a prominent part in the battles of Carthage and Wilson's Creek. In the latter engagement, as elsewhere described he was wounded nigh unto death. Kind and skillful hands ministered to him until his faithful and devoted wife reached him, after accomplishing a toilsome and perilous journey in a carriage from Paris, Monroe county, to Springfield. Mainly from her care and nursing and the skillful treatment of his old family physician and then military surgeon, Dr. Wm. Keith, he recovered in less than two months so as to resume command of his division. Though not able to go north with the army under Gen. Price when it moved from Springfield against the Federals on the Missouri, he set out in an ambulance as soon as it was at all permitted him to do so, accompanied by his wife and Dr. Keith, and arrived at Lexington the day after Mulligan's surrender. He received a great ovation from his troops.

He took command of his division October 11, following, and remained with it throughout the fall and winter campaign in Southwest Missouri. When the troops of the Missouri State Guard were being mustered into the Confederate States' service he used great efforts to induce his men to join it, and nearly all did so. January 23, 1862, he was placed in command of the 2d brigade of Missouri Confederate volunteers, composed of Cols. Bevier's and Rosser's battalions of infantry, Capts. Lucas' and Landis' batteries of artillery, Col. McCullough's battalion of cavalry, together with Hughes' battalion, Gause's battalion and some other battalions, companies and squads.

Early in the desperate battle of Pea Ridge, or Elkhorn Tavern, Ark., March 7, 1862, Gen. Slack was mortally wounded, at the head of his brigade, and while placing it in position. The ball which struck him entered an inch above the old wound received at Wilson's Creek — in the right hip, ranging downward, producing paralysis of the urinary organs, which resulted in inflammation and gangrene. He was caught by his aide-de-camp, Col. Scott, when about to fall from his horse, and with the assistance of others carefully conveyed in an ambulance to a house in Sugar Hollow, where his wound was skillfully dressed by the brigade surgeon, Dr. Peter Austin. The next day when the Confederates retreated, he was conveyed to Andrew Roller's, east of the battle ground; accompanied by Maj. Cravens, Dr. Keith and Sergt. Street. Here he remained until the 16th, when, afraid of capture, he was removed seven miles further away from the field, to Moore's Mills, where he rapidly grew worse, and at 3 a. m., Thursday, March 20th, he breathed his last. The next morning he was buried eight miles east of the battle field. In the spring of 1880 his remains were removed to the Confederate cemetery at Fayetteville, Ark., where they yet lie.

Gen. Slack was twice married. His first wife was Mary E. Woodward, daughter of Maj. Woodward, of Ray county, Mo. To her he was married in July, 1842, and she died February 9, 1858, leaving two children — John W., and Emma I., the latter becoming Mrs. Vaughn — both of whom are dead. January 12, 1859, the General married Isabella R., a daughter of Dr. Gustavus M. Bower, of Monroe county, Mo.

Mrs. Slack, is a native of Kentucky, but came to Monroe county at an early age. Her father was a surgeon in the American army in the War of 1812, and was at the battle and massacre on the River Raisin, in Michigan, where he was taken prisoner by the British and Indians and narrowly escaped with his life. He was a thorough gentleman, a man of culture, education and ability and attained rare prominence and distinction. In 1844 he was elected to Congress from Missouri and served one term very acceptably and faithfully.

By the last wife Gen. Slack had two children, Wm. Y., Jr., and Gustavus Bower; the latter was born December 11, 1861, and never saw his father. Wm. Y. Slack, Jr., was born in Chillicothe, July 28, 1860, and still claims his citizenship here. In 1877 he received, after a competitive examination, the appointment of cadet at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md. After a stay of three years at this institution he decided not to enter the naval service, having no desire for a life on the ocean wave after he learned what it meant, and so he resigned before graduating and returned home with a splendid record made at the Naval school for scholarship and general efficiency. Returning to Chillicothe he studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1882, and soon after was appointed justice of the peace, to which office he was afterward elected. In 1885 he was appointed postal clerk on the Wabash Railway which position he is now filling with marked ability. Gustavus B. Slack was educated at La Grange College, and after leaving school was for some time a clerk, then a commercial traveler or drummer, and has also followed railroading to some extent.

The widow of Gen. Slack lives in his old home at Chillicothe. A lady of intelligence, accomplishment and refinement, and withal of deep and sincere piety, she is admired and beloved by all who know her.

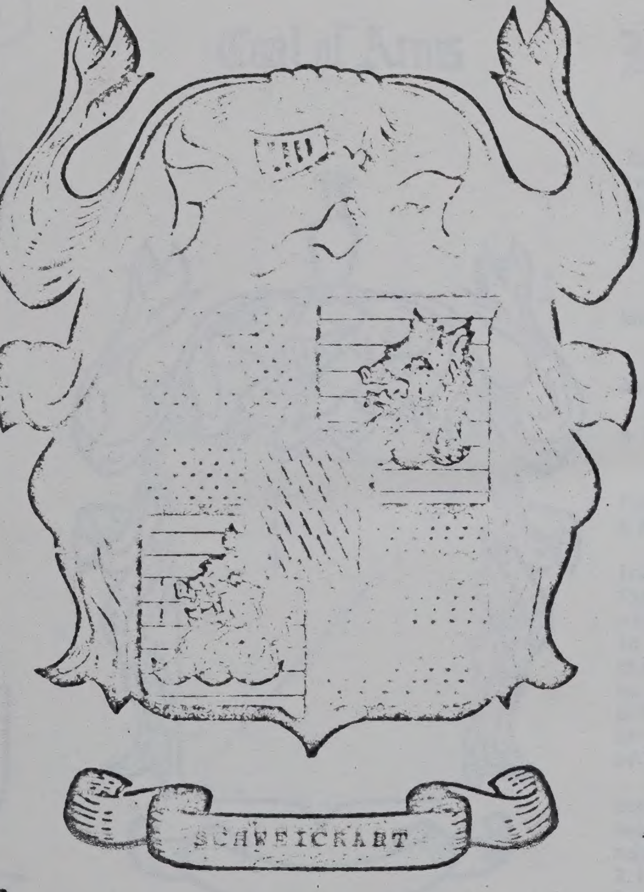
PRESENTED AND
COMPILED BY HERSCHEL A. SCHWEICKART

1978

This historiography was prepared individually for the Schweickart surname on March 25, 1974 at the request of

Mr. Herschel Schweickart
812 Fairacres Drive
Kettering, Ohio 45429



The coat of arms illustrated left was drawn by a heraldic artist based upon information about the Schweickart surname and its association with heraldry. In the language of the ancient heralds, the arms are described as follows:

> "Quartered: 1st, or; the letter "S" sa.; 2nd and 3rd, az.; a head of a boar erased or; 4th, or.; 2 bars sa. Charged with a small inner shield vert."

The Schweickart arms is translated:

> Divided into quarters: 1st quarter, gold background; a black initial "S", 2nd and 3rd quarters, blue background; a gold head of a boar cut jagged; 4th quarter, gold; 2 narrow black horizontal bands. A small green inner shield placed over all.

A head of a boar is symbolic of cordial hospitality. Seven vivid colors were chosen for use on shields of armor clad knights to easily identify them at a distance. The heraldic colors gold, silver, purple, blue, green, black, and red were preserved on colorless drawings by dot and line symbols. The Schweickart coat of arms incorporated green. The color green represents hope, vitality, plenty.

Information available indicates that in 1972 there were less than 52 households in the U. S. with the old and distinguished Schweickart name. In comparison, some family names represent over 400,000 households in the United States.

This report does not represent individual lineage of the Schweickart family tree and no genealogical representation is intended or implied.

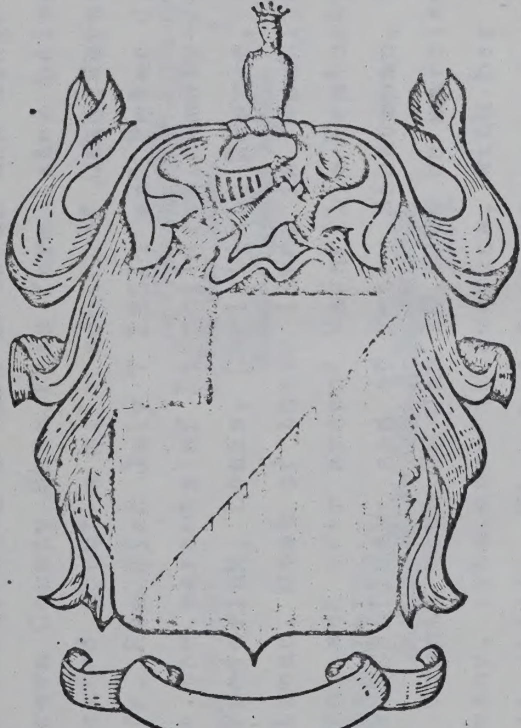
Coat of Arms



Schatzman

Historiography

The Schatzman Coat of Arms illustrated left was drawn by an heraldic artist from information officially recorded in ancient heraldic archives. Documentation for the Schatzman Coat of Arms design can be found in Siebmacher's Wappenbuch. Heraldic artists of old developed their own unique language to describe an individual Coat of Arms. In their language, the Arms (shield) is as follows:

> "Von S. u. R. schraglinks getheilt, oben eine r. ledige Vierung."

When translated the Arms description is:

> "Divided diagonally by a right diagonal silver and red; top part charged with a red left upper corner."

Above the shield and helmet is the Crest which is described as:

> "R. bekleideter gekronter Mannesrumpf mit Zopf."

A translation of the Crest description is:

> "A man's trunk, crowned, dressed in red and wearing a plait of hair."

Family mottos are believed to have originated as battle cries in medieval times. A Motto was not recorded with the Schatzman Coat of Arms.

Individual surnames originated for the purpose of more specific identification. The four primary sources for second names were: occupation, location, father's name and personal characteristics. The surname Schatzman appears to be occupational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the German, meaning, "one who had charge of the treasury." The supplementary sheet included with this report is designed to give you more information to further your understanding of the origin of names. Different spellings of the same original surname are a common occurrence. Dictionaries of surnames indicate probable spelling variations. The most prominent variations of Schatzman are Schatzmann, Schatz, and Schatzmen.

Information available to us indicates that in 1971 there were approximately 200 heads of households in the United States with the old and distinguished Schatzman name. The United States Census Bureau in 1970 estimated that there were approximately 3.1 persons per household in America which yields an approximate total of 620 people in the United States carrying the Schatzman name. Although the figure seems relatively low, it does not signify the many important contributions that individuals bearing the Schatzman name have made to history.

No genealogical representation is intended or implied by this report and it does not represent individual lineage or your family tree.

History of the Schweickart Family in Brown County Ohio. By Herschel A Schweickart.

PHILLIP SCHWEICKART: a prominent landholder of Franklin Twp, Brown County Ohio. Was born in the State of Alsace France, May 25 1803 His parents were DANIEL and POLLY (Sadler) SCHWEICKART. His parents never came to America, but lived in Alsace France until their death.

Phillip came to America in I84I, locating in Brown County Ohio. He worked at a brick yard for a number of years. In the fall of I852, he married Mrs Mary (Bohrer) Houck), widow of Frank Hauck, who owned a farm of 200 acres of land, in Franklin Twp, Brown County Ohio. In I882 he purchased 240 acres more, near the Honey Run school, Franklin Twp. They had 2 children, Catherine, wife of Godfrey Gwinner, a farmer of Jackson Twp, and Phillip (Jr) Schweickart, assisting his father on the farm. I have no proof of this statement, but i believe Phillip (Sr) was a brother of Henry Schweickart (Sr) and Maximilian Schweickart (Sr) who emigrated to America about I853.

(Note) The French State of Alsace, was always part of France dating from the tenth Century, until the France-German war of I870-I873 In the settlement treaty with Germany, France lost possession of the State of Alsace, until I9I9, at the settlement of world war #I when it reverted back to France.

Therefore, at the time the Schweickart family emigrated to America, Alsace was a French possession, where both the French and German languages were spoken.

1908: A Eulogy

Eliza Jane Ellis

Eight miles distant from the abrupt hills skirting the north shore of the Ohio River, near the bank of old Eagle Creek where it pursues its sluggish way to the Ohio, among the lower lying hills of Brown County, Eliza Jane Ellis was born on the old farm that is still owned and occupied by members of her family. She was the daughter of William F. and Abigail Pickerill, and was the fifth child of a family of eleven children.

Her early training and education, like that of all the children of that pioneer country, was on the farm and in the district school. Here she grew up to womanhood and her early life was made happy in the association of brothers and sisters and many other companions of those early days. She was a charming young lady; a fine singer, and her company was sought, for she was loved by all who knew her. But she had a vein of seriousness in her nature and when quite a young woman united with the church of her fathers of the Christian faith; in the old stone church of her fathers which her grandfather helped to erect one hundred years ago, and where a prosperous congregation still worships and exerts a wide influence for good in that community. To the faith of her fathers she adherred all the remainder of her life; and one of the highest and noblest aspirations of her whole life was to live true to the faith of her childhood.

When about twenty years old she gave her heart and hand to William H. Ellis, the son of a neighbor farmer, and they were married in the old farm home where she was born. To her then, life was beautiful and full of hope. She and her husband at once went to a new farm home which he had provided in advance of their marriage. Here they began their new life, both taking hold of its duties with the energy and enthusiasm characteristic of young people who realized its seriousness, and to them a son and a daughter were born in this home. Then came a change in their career. The husband was one of a large family of sons and daughters, all of whom had grown to manhood and womanhood and married and settled in the neighborhood. What was called the western fever seized upon the Ellis family, old and young including the old father, and most of them decided to migrate beyond the Mississippi, which they did, and selling out their farms and all their belongings, they bought lands and settled in the neighborhood of Fort Lyons, Benton County, about the year 1857. They formed quite a settlement in that sparsely settled section of the country and were warmly welcomed by the good people who had established homes there in advance of them, and life was full of hope to them all.

Unfortunately this condition of things was not to last. In the spring of 1861, the Civil War broke upon the country and in no part of it was the shock of war more severe or last longer than in southwestern Missouri where the Ellis family had settled. As is well known, as many of the people of that region linked their fortunes with the south as with the north, and the war there took on a partisan character attended with all the horrors of partisan warfare. Every able bodied man was compelled to take one side or the other; join some body of troops serving one side or the other, and his only place of comparative safety was with the military organization to which he belonged. Under such compulsion, William H. Ellis became a lieutenant in a company of the Missouri State Militia on the Union side and served his country almost four years. The service of the organization was largely in southwestern Missouri, and he had occasional opportunity to visit his home and family but such trips always had to be in the company of enough of his comrades in arms to make the visits safe from prowling bands of the enemy, always on the lookout for smaller bands of those opposed to them.

During all these four dreary years, Eliza Jane Ellis remained on the little farm home in Benton County [the farm was actually in Henry County] with the children that had increased in number after the settlement in Missouri; taking care of the home and children and what they had not been robbed of, the best she could, while her husband was compelled to remain with his company in the performance of his military duties. It was a sad life and one full of dangers and hardships and what she endured through those weary years will never be known or written. Armed bands of Southern men prowled through the settlement, with knowledge of every man who was in the ranks of their enemies, and well knew that Lieutenant Ellis was one of the number opposed to them, and perhaps the only reason his little farm home escaped unharmed was the fact that it sheltered his defenseless wife and little children. Such was the bitter experience of the young wife and mother whose early life had been passed amid the quiet and joyousness of her country farm home in southern Ohio. What thoughts passed through her mind during those long and bitter weeks, months and years of war as she thought of the old home and father and mother, exposed to the enemy on one hand, and liable to hear of the death of her husband, her only support, or his capture by the enemy, worse than death, will never be known or imagined by any one who has not had a similar experience. Partisan warfare in southwestern Missouri was an awful thing. Neighbor was arrayed against neighbor and no life, even following the pursuits of peace, was safe if it was suspected. When men were captured by the enemy they were generally shot instead of being held as ordinary prisoners of war. The records show that eighty men were shot down in Henry County when trying to visit their families at their homes or attempting to cultivate crops for a brief season for the subsistence of their dependent families. From the brush, men were shot down at the plow. Families that could get away, fled to their people north or south, but mand had to remain. To remain with her children was the lot of Eliza Jane Ellis. She tarried with her family of little children in the little farm home, hoping their presence would have in it some mute appeal to the most ruthless one and that while they remained the home was not likely to be burned down over their heads as it certainly would have been had they absented themselves. But in the fullness of time, the war came to an end and those who had escaped its horrors and trials returned to their old haunts and such homes as the war had spared. All the brothers, five in number, that Eliza Jane Ellis had, were in that awful war and while it progressed, her old father in Ohio died of work and worry, and when the boys came back the good old mother was trying to carry on the old home farm with the aid of a contraband from Kentucky. Lieutenant Ellis returned to his home, his wife and his children and all thanked God for the reunion. Life and health and energy were spared them and they took up life's battles anew. The fertile prairies again responded to the hand of industry and the evidences of war's desolating march were passing away, and love and happiness once more reigned in the Ellis home on the farm after their ruthless disturbance.

But this did not last. One April evening in 1871 [it was actually a March evening in 1874], Lieutenant Ellis came home from a hard day's work with a raging fever. It proved to be pneumonia and in a few days he was dead. And then indeed was that home again stricken. But love reigned there and mother and children clung to each other and they did not give up. The wife and mother never lost her faith in God and toiled on. With the children, she cultivated the little farm as best she could. They sheltered and clothed themselves and the children availed themselves of all the advantages of the district schools. They all knew how to work and the education they acquired proved useful. They grew to manhood and womanhood, and the mother who had been so sorely tried found happiness in the fact that she had been able to accomplish so much for her children. That was her reward.

Four of her daughters and two of her sons married, went away, and established homes of their own, and two of her children, a son and a daughter, remained with her but both of these after a few brief years, sickened and died; the daughter Stella in the mountains of Colorado, and William H. [William L.] near San Antonio, Texas where he had gone for health. When this last prop of her old age was taken away from her she gave up the farm and went among her married children, first living in Missouri, then in Colorado, then in California, and then back to Missouri, where for her life's chapter has closed near the end of her seventy-fifth year, for she was born on the 7th of February, 1832.

She often yearned to revisit the home of her childhood although she said it would not be like it once was, but the old hills, buildings and creek would be there still. But this yearning of her soul was never gratified in the more than fifty years she had been away from the, to her, deal old spot. Her father had died while her five brothers were absent as soldiers in the Civil War. Her sister Malinda West of Low Point, Illinois, and brother George Saunders, next younger than herself, and her little sister Matilda, an infant two years old, as well as her good old mother, had all gone before her to the rest that has now come to her. Her sister Mary A. Stitt of El Paso, Ill. and her brother William N. of Indianapolis; Samuel W. on the old farm near Decatur, Ohio; John of Appleton City, Missouri; and Greenleaf N. of Charles Lake, Louisiana; as well as her own children, Mrs. Lou S. Baker of Sedalia; Mrs. Bettie Gladfelter of Windsor, Missouri; John B. and Charles N. of Colorado Springs, and Mrs. Clarissa Oatman of Victor, Col. and Mrs. Kate Husband of Fruitvale, California, remain to mourn her going.

She was a good girl, a good wife, a good mother, a good old woman, so her whole life was a blessing to others if it was full of trials for herself. She has been laid to rest where the flowers of the prairie will bloom over her, and her soul is with the husband who left her in 1871 [1874], and let us hope that after "life's fitful fever, they sleep well." She also has with her her children Nathan, Stella, William H. [William L.] and Anna Husband.

Such is the story and tragedy of a life well spent, but which carried in its train much of sorrow and suffering, all born patiently to the end. I go back in memory and see her today as a young girl in the home of her childhood, joyous and full of life, where we were all happy together and had little thought, or little realized what was in store for each of us, and the thought comes to each of us, how little we know of what life has in store for us. But we think it is well with her. "In death's dark hour, hope sees a star, and listening love hears the rustle of a wing." That her children may know, what others knew of their mother's love for them, these farewell words are written by the brother who loved her.

Indianapolis, March 7th, 1908.

This eulogy was written by William N. Pickerill. It has been faithfully copied from three yellowing sheets of bond on which the typewriting has a faded lavender color. These sheets have been in the family for many years. There is no signiature. Eliza Jane Pickerill Ellis died on March 3, 1908. Her burial place, presumably in Missouri, is not known by me.

Dear Linda:

This will acknowledge your letter of March 27, 1981 and I was most happy to hear from you.

We would like you to do some searching for us and I am enclosing my check in the sum of $25.00.

Information we would like to have is attached pages 1-2 "Information Needed".

Enclosed is also copy of Isaac Bartlow's will, which I received from Brown County Ohio - two pages- listing 1. Heirs of the Will 2. Children from Beer's "Brown Co. Ohio History". Thisis a comparison and accounts for the nineteen children of Isaac Bartlow Sr. families of the three marriages. You will note that Carolina, of the second marriage, is not listed in the Will, however, Cornelius Bartlow is mentioned in the will and I think possibly Carolina from "Beer's History" could be in error- as were dates for his youngest child.

Also enclsoing a copy of Beer's Brown Co History page 93- so you won't have to send this to me.

My Genealogy helper it states Brown County Pro Judge has birth, marriage and Probate records from 1800 County Health has death records from 1800.

This period would cover information I have requested on Page 1. attached.

Now-- I am going to ramble about so you will understand why we are so interested - we are in an isolated part of Oregon and in order to get publications such as Beer's and the Cemetery Volumes we have to inter-libray loan from Oregon State Library- and even then they might not have these records.

" We have been searching for the parents of my great grandfather Cornelius Bartlow for a long time. 1 My first information(from a second cousin) in December of 1969 stated he was from Pennyslvania and was Pennyslvania Dutch. We did a lot of searching in Penn- then found through census of Illinois where Cornelius Bartlow owned property that he was born in Ohio.

From Bible Record Cornelius Bartlow was born Jan 12, 1825 (census states Ohio) he died July 14, 1867 in Alton Illinois.

He married May 23, 1854 Rural Ohio (Clermont Co.) to Mary Jane Duvall born June 4, 1834 Rural Ohio and died July 16, 1908 Alton Ill.

This definintly places Cornelius in Clermont County at the time of his marriage.

Through census record- 1820 1840 Brown Co. we located Isaac Bartlow Sr. we were not able to find 1830 or 1850- and that is why we have asked for these two years if they are available- and would like run down on family members for these two years.

I took a chance and requested a will for Isaac Bartlow Sr., in Brown Co and was really excited when it mentioned Cornelius Bartlow with 125 acres of land willed to him by Isaac Bartlow Sr., his father.(Clermont Co)

We believe if we can get deeds to this property- as requested in the Information we would like for you to find for us, that this could establish some proof of our Cornelius Bartlow's father.

According to the cousin I mentioneed before, Cornelius Bartlow and wife Mary Jane Duvall Bartlow were in Clermont County until their first child Hiram Bartlow was born in Rural Ohio April 14, 1855- they moved while Hiram Bartlow was still an infant- to St. Josephs Missouri searching for land- not finding anything to their liking in Missouri they bought land in Alton Illinois where Cornelius had other children, farmed and built a home. He died at a fairly early age of 42 following an accident - he was thrown from a horse breaking his leg, which caused his death.

We were always a little curious about where Cornelius Bartlow had money to travel around for land- and perhaps this was from sale of his property in Clermont- another thought- if his mother was a Mohn- maybe he was an heir of his mother- I have requested this history from the Librarian in Brown Co. Public Library.

Just talked to my daughter (she is also searching) and we wondered if Cornelius Bartlow went by another first name- there was a Henry and Joseph of this second marriage who were not mentioned in the will.????

Now--- during my search and correspondence I received information from a Mrs. Green in Indiana (very reluctent to give me information) she finally told me that a Bert (Berlin) Bartlow of Indiana and Butler Co. Ohio was supposed to have had a complete genealogy of the family back to pre-revolution -

I located a will for Bert Bartlow and also family sketch from Chapter VI Centennial History of Butler County Ohio (Pages 351-38-39-40 -41 420) This states his ancestor was James Bartlow, son of Cornelius Bartlow born in New Jersey May 10, 1766- James Bartlow and his youngest brother Isaac Bartlow (this probably refers to our Isaac Bartlow Sr.) left New Jersey was in Berkeley Co Virginia and then to Kentucky - James Bartlow older brother moved to Indiana- his descendents finally settled in Butler Co Ohio.-- So if you run into a family genealogy by Bert Bartlow on the Bartlow Clan-- we would sure like to have a copy of it.

Georgia

You will note Isaac Bartlow Sr had a daughter Leathey - my mother's middle name was Leatha-sylvania, he of English descent and she of German on her mother's side. The parents were married by the rector of the Swede Church in Philadelphia, the oldest church in that city. The father died there when the subject of our sketch was a babe, and the mother was married twice afterward. She died in Philadelphia, at about the age of seventy-five. John E. Barnes is the only child of the first marriage. When about nine years of age he began to make his own way in the world, and in his teens worked for about four years in a large mercantile house in Philadelphia. He spent his earnings in educating himself, taking a course in the University of Pennsylvania up to the junior year. Having acquired a thorough medical education, he located at Raymond, Miss., where he married Miss Mary A. L. Warner in 1853. She was born in Florida. After practicing for some time at Jackson, Miss., Dr. Barnes returned to Philadelphia. About this time, train after train of sick and wounded soldiers were coming into the city, no hospital accommodations being sufficient for them. The citizens met in the Doctor's parlor and formed the Citizens' Volunteer Hospital Association, of which he was chosen president, but not accepting, was chosen vice-president. He served for a time as assistant surgeon of the above mentioned association, and in 1868 moved to Missouri, locating in Dade County, where he remained two years, and later came to this county, where he still lives, engaged in the practice of medicine to a limited extent. He is a local elder in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and his wife is a member of the Baptist Church, and both are much respected citizens. The Doctor is the owner of 560 acres of land, and for eighteen years has been a resident of Texas County. He is a Democrat in his political views, and has been probate judge of this county one term. He has been a member of the Odd Fellows lodge for about thirty-six years and a Mason for about twenty-five years; has held the positions of District Deputy Grand Master and Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Missouri.

Perry Barricklow. The milling interests of Texas County, Mo., have an energetic representative in the person of Mr. Barricklow, who was born in Dearborn County, Ind., October 8, 1837, and is a son of Farrington and Patsy (Buchanan) Barricklow, grandson of Daniel, and great-grandson of Van Dyke Barricklow, who was a native of New Jersey, and a soldier in the Revolutionary War, being wounded at King's Mountain. His son Daniel was also born in New Jersey, and Farrington was born in Fayette County, Penn., in 1804. He was reared on a farm, and in his early days was a medical student. He removed with his parents to Dearborn County, Ind., in 1816, and in 1832 was married to Miss Buchanan, who was a daughter of James Buchanan, of Bedford County, Va., of Scotch-Irish parentage. In 1856 Farrington Barricklow and his brother Henry removed to Kansas, and laid out the town of Palmyra, now Baldwin City. In 1861 Perry Barricklow enlisted in Company H, Thirteenth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, under J. C. Sullivan, and served until July, 1864. He returned to Kansas, and was engaged in teaching school for a short time. He came to Missouri in 1866, and established the Cassville Republican, the first paper published in Barry County, and the following year went to Dent County, and established the Monitor, the official

PERSONAL MENTION.

BERT S. BARTLOW.

This well-known and representative citizen of Hamilton stands as a worthy scion of old colonial stock, both in the agnatic and maternal lines. He has served as a member of the Ohio legislature and held other positions of distinctive public trust, while he is specially eligible for representation in a publication of the province assigned to the one at hand.

Bert Surene Bartlow was born near Mount Carmel, Springfield township, Franklin county, Indiana, on the 10th of July, 1869, his place of nativity having been the old ancestral homestead which was secured from the government by his great-grandfather, James Bartlow, in 1814, prior to the admission of Indiana to the Union. Said homestead comprised a quarter section of the land in the territory northwest of the Ohio river directed by act of congress to be sold, and was deeded to James Bartlow by the United States government under date of June 25, 1816. This original deed is in the possession of the subject of this review and bears the signature of James Madison, then President of the United States.

James Thompson Bartlow, father of him whose name initiates this sketch, was born on the old homestead mentioned on the 7th of March, 1847, being a son of Joseph Carter Bartlow and Eliza Jane (Kennard) Bartlow, whose marriage was solemnized on October 22, 1841, the former having likewise been born on June 3, 1818, on the old farm secured by his father from the government. The original American ancestors of the Bartlow family came from Holland to the new world prior to the war of the Revolution, and the first concerning whom authentic record is extant is Cornelius Bartlow, of New Jersey, from whom the subject is a representative of the fourth generation in line of direct descent. James Bartlow, son of Cornelius, was born in New Jersey, on the 10th of May, 1766, and his death occurred September 20, 1854. He married Isabella Wiley, a native of Virginia, and they became the parents of thirteen children, of whom Joseph was the youngest. After the close of the Revolution James Bartlow and his younger brother, Isaac, left New Jersey and removed to Martinsburg, Berkeley county, Virginia, now West Virginia, and there James married Miss Wiley. Later they became pioneers of Bracken county, Kentucky, where they lived for a time in the block house at Augusta. After the extermination of the Indians, in whose suppression Mr. Bartlow took an active part, he settled on a farm near Augusta, where he continued to reside until 1814, in which year he removed to Indiana, as has been already noted. To Joseph C. and Eliza Jane (Kennard) Bartlow were born four sons and one daughter, and of the number three are dead, William A., who died in infancy in 1843; George K., who died at his home in Blackburn, Oklahoma, December 22, 1899, and Mary A., who died at Richmond, Indiana, June 3, 1901. Those living are, James T., father of the subject, and Albert F., a prominent retired farmer residing at Anderson, Madison county, Indiana. Joseph C. Bartlow died on the 17th of May, 1899, and his wife passed away on the 6th of February, 1904, at the home of her son James T., in Hamilton. She was born in Westchester, Butler county, Ohio, on the 2d of March, 1824, being a daughter of George G. and Jane (Thompson) Kennard, the former a native of Maryland and the latter of Pennsylvania. They were numbered among the sterling pioneers of Butler county, having resided for many years at Westchester, Union township, and later near St. Charles, in Morgan township, where both died many years ago.

In Franklin county, Indiana, on the 17th of September, 1868, was solemnized the marriage of James Thompson Bartlow and Almira Luse. After his marriage Mr. Bartlow was identified with agricultural pursuits for several years, and for a short interval, in 1872 and 1873, he was engaged in mercantile business in Hamilton. He then returned to Indiana, in whose public schools he was a successful teacher until 1876, in which year he came again to Butler county, Ohio, settling in Reily township, where he taught school about eighteen years. In October, 1896, he removed to the city of Hamilton, where he has a comfortable home, in the first ward. He has always been a stanch advocate of the principles of the Democratic party, and while a resident of Reily township served as township clerk and assessor. For five years after his removal to Hamilton he was an attache of the department of public works, and of late he has been employed as weighmaster for the factory by the Champion Coated Paper Company of Hamilton. He is a member of Hamilton Tent, No. 317, Knights of the Maccabees, of which he has been record keeper for the past several years. To James T. and Almira (Luse) Bartlow have been born four children, of whom the subject of this sketch is the eldest. Emma was married, February 19, 1890, to George W. Abbott, of Franklin county, Indiana, and his death occurred on the 19th of May, 1903. To Mr. and Mrs. Abbott were born four children, Orpha, Howard, Dale and Oakley, of whom Orpha, the only daughter, died November 4, 1904, in her fourteenth year. Mrs. Abbott has recently purchased a fine farm four miles east of Hamilton, and there she now maintains her home. The two younger children of James T. and Almira Bartlow are Anna C. and Mae, both of whom remain at the parental home.

Almira (Luse) Bartlow, mother of the subject of this review, was born in Springfield township, Franklin county, Indiana, on the 12th of June, 1849, and is a daughter of Hiram and Rebecca (Rynear-

Re: BARKELOW, Cornelius

Dear Mrs. Weber:

I have searched the most likely sources in our library to contain data on Cornelius Barkelow and find nothing. I had time today to visit the Hunterdon County Hall of Records and looked up land transactions listed under the above-captioned name.

In Deed Book 3, pages 281 thru 285, is a transaction where Jesse Shamp and others are selling to Thomas Lequear 209 acres in Kingwood Twp., Hunterdon County. John Malachi Shamp, of Kingwood Twp., died intestate, seized of a 209 acre tract adjoining the Delaware River. He left heirs son Jesse, daughter Sarah who married William Barcalow, Jane who married Cornelius Barcalow and Anna who married Cornelius Britton and others, also. The above-mentioned heirs signed a power of attorney on December 15, 1800 permitting the property to be sold. They were all residing, at that time, in Muncy Creek Township, Lycoming County, Pennsylvania.

Another document relating to the 209 acres, detailing description, etc. is recorded in Deed Book 5, pages 114-118.

Another record is located on page 286 of Deed Book 22 but I did not have time to look at this. This is a transfer of land from a Cornelius Berkelow to Moses Everitt. Copies of these records may be obtained from the Hunterdon County Clerk.

Sincerely,

CONLEY McFADDEN

CONLEY McFADDEN, a Revolutionary soldier who died and is buried in Scott Township, Brown County, Ohio, was born March 3, 1752. After emigrating from Ireland to America, he lived in the neighborhood of Cranbury, New Jersey, where he entered the colonial service. Records in the National Archives show that he served in Capt. Elias Longstreet's Company and in Capt. Peter VanVoorhees' Company, 1st. New Jersey Regiment, commanded by Col. Matthias Ogden; he enlisted on May 23, 1778, and was discharged Feb. 25, 1779. Another reference, The Official Register of the Officers and Men of New Jersey in the Revolutionary War, by W. S. Stryker, on p. 245 shows that he also served in the militia in the 1st Battalion, 2nd Establishment; again, on p. 684, he is shown to have been enrolled in Captain Morgan's Company, 2nd Regiment, Middlesex County Militia. These records are not inconsistent, as many Revolutionary soldiers enlisted and served for a period in one outfit, and then re-enlisted later and served in another company.

Records of the First Presbyterian Church, Cranbury, Middlesex County, New Jersey, show that Conley McFadden was living there in September, 1792, when his daughter, Anna Smith McFadden, was baptized in the church. Shortly thereafter, he, with his wife JENNIE DELAPLANE (or DELAPLAIN) McFADDEN, and the six children born to them in New Jersey migrated to Kentucky, settling in Mason County. They remained in Mason County for seven or eight years before removing to what is now Brown County, Ohio.

After removing to Ohio, Conley McFadden purchased 50 acres of land in Scott Township located in John Brown's Survey No. 3872. This land lay near White Oak Creek, about one and one-half miles south of the village of New Hope. Here he lived until his death, which occurred on January 31, 1840. When the heirs of Conley McFadden sold the farm a few years later, a graveyard plot located in the northeastern corner of the land was excepted from the sale. There can be no doubt that Conley McFadden is buried in this family cemetery.

Under the pension act passed by Congress in 1818, Conley McFadden applied for and was granted a pension which he continued to draw for the remainder of his life. At the time of his application, his wife and one unmarried daughter (Susanna) were living with him.

At the time of his death he was survived by ten living children, as proved by deeds made by them as his heirs when they sold the farm to Hanson R. Hanna:

1. Susanna McFadden (b. 1781; d. May 12, 1870, in Brown County, Ohio). She was never married. She is buried in the Eden Cemetery, Lewis Township, Brown County.

2. Sarah McFadden (b. ca. 1784) married, May 1, 1806, Jesse Tucker.

3. Jane McFadden (b. Sept. 3, 1787; d. March, 1836, at Upper Alton, Ill.) m. Dec. 10, 1804, in Mason County, Ky., Samuel Delaplane.

4. John McFadden (b. ca. 1788; d. April 28, 1878; buried Lick Springs Cem., Nineveh Township, Johnson County, Indiana) m. first, March 3, 1811, in Adams County, Ohio, Sinai Hannah; he married second, March 31, 1829, in Brown County, Ohio, Elizabeth Kinnett.

5. Elizabeth McFadden married Benjamin Smith, Aug. 31, 1808, in Mason County, Kentucky.

6. Ann Smith McFadden (b. Sept. 1792, in Cranbury, N. J.; d. June 16, 1876, in Brown County, Ohio; buried Eden Cemetery, Lewis Township) married William Liming (b. 1790; d. May 4, 1849).

7. Catherine McFadden married Elijah Sollenberg.

father's farm to Hanson R. Hannah. However, in 1850, he appears in the #1018-1023 census in Scott Township, Brown County, with a wife Jane, aged 37, and children Andrew T., aged 14, Deliverance, aged 10, and Joseph M., aged 3. There was also a Phoebe O. Dickey, [redacted] aged 12, living with the family. I would assume that Jane was his second wife, and that Phoebe O. was her daughter by a previous marriage, and that Joseph M. was a son of James and Jane McFadden. In 1860 the family is listed in Johnson County, Indiana; James McFadden, 58; Jane, 47; Phoebe, 22; Joseph, 13; Sarah E., 9; Eliza E, 7; Rebecca A., 4; and William, 2/12. Also, as a separate household: Andrew T. McFadden, 24; Lucinda McFadden, 20. These households were listed near to and between those of Charles B. McFadden and his brother John McFadden.

JOHN McFADDEN

JOHN McFADDEN, son of Conley and Jennie (Delaplain) McFadden, was born in New Jersey ca. 1789. On March 8, 1811, he married in Adams County, Ohio, SINAI HANNAH; she died in Brown County, Ohio, prior to 1829. They had several children, but only one has been positively identified:

1. Conley McFadden (b. Sept. 28, 1813, in Adams - now Brown - County, Ohio) - for an account of his family, see below.

JOHN McFADDEN married second, March 31, 1829, in Brown County, Ohio, ELIZABETH KINNETT (b. ca. 1797 in Kentucky). Their children were as follows:

2. Thomas McFadden (b. in 1830, in Ohio)
3. Siney Ann McFadden (b. in 1833, in Ohio)
4. Robert McFadden (b. in 1836, in Ohio)
5. Nancy McFadden (b. in 1838, in Ohio) married in Johnson County, Indiana, Aaron E. Jolliffe.

About 1840 John McFadden, his second wife, and their children, moved from Brown County, Ohio, to Johnson County, Indiana, where he and sons Thomas and Robert owned and operated a saw mill. The census records show that the value of their property increased from $3800 in 1860 to $16,800 in 1870.

John McFadden died April 28, 1878, and is buried in the Lick Springs Cemetery, Nineveh Township, Johnson County, Indiana.

CONLEY McFADDEN, son of JOHN and SINAI (HANNAH) McFADDEN

CONLEY McFADDEN, son of John and Sinai (Hannah) McFadden, was born Sept. 28, 1813, in Adams (now Brown) County, Ohio; he died in 1902, and is buried in The Waverly Cemetery, Waverly, Coffey County, Kansas. In early years he was an abolitionist who aided in the escape of runaway slaves by way of the "underground railroad". He was a local preacher during much of his life. Conley McFadden married first, Nov. 12, 1843, in Brown County, MARY BRADLEY; she was born Nov. 29, 1814, and died July 18, 1848, at Fincastle, Brown County. She is buried in the Aerl or Wilson Cemetery, Eagle Township. There were three children born to this marriage:

1. Amelia McFadden (b. March 10, 1845; died in her teens, unmarried)
2. Edward McFadden (b. June 30, 1846; d. Aug. 30, 1846)
3. Sinai Albina McFadden (b. July 7, 1848; d. July 8, 1848)

CONLEY McFADDEN married second, May 21, 1850, in Brown County, MARY MAFFETTE SELLMAN, daughter of John and Hannah (Reynolds) Sellman. She was born in Jackson Township, Brown County, July 12, 1826, and died near Waverly, Coffey County, Kansas, June 4, 1885. She is buried in the Waverly Cemetery. Conley and Mary M. (Sellman) McFadden lived until 1854 in Fincastle, Brown County. Then then moved to Jackson County, Indiana, and later to Piatt County, Illinois, where they lived until the late 1870's, when they emigrated to Coffey County, Kansas, taking up a homestead in Rock Crddk Township. Their children were as follows:

1. Martha McFadden (b. April 18, 1851, in Brown Co., Ohio; d. March 1, 1866, unmarried).

2. Mary A. McFadden (b. July 24, 1853, in Brown Co., Ohio; d. in Texas) married, March 14, 1882, in Coffey Co., Kansas, Joseph M. Roby (b. in or about 1853; d. in Texas). Their children were Horace Roby, John Roby, and Venus Roby.

3. Sharon Conley McFadden (b. Jan. 14, 1855, in Jackson Co., Indiana; d. Oct. 13, 1903, at Topeka, Kans; buried at Chanute, Kans) married first, Sept. 22, 1881, Barbara Ann Becker (b. ca. 1863; d. July 2, 1886). By this marriage there was one child who died in infancy. Sharon C. McFadden married second, May 6, 1888, at Ottawa, Kans., Harriet M. Sharpe (b. Sept. 1, 1869, at Ottawa, Kans.; d. June 27, 1956, at Chanute, Kans.). The children by the second marriage were Ruth McFadden (b. Feb. 3, 1890), Ralph McFadden (b. Aug. 8, 1891), Dorothy McFadden (b. Nov. 24, 1893), Herbert McFadden (b. June 22, 1897, Sharon McFadden (b. Jan. 5, 1902, and John McFadden (b. Dec. 19, 1903).

Sharon C. McFadden enrolled in the University of Illinois at Champaign, Ill, while living with his parents in Piatt Co., Ill., and would have graduated with the class of 1877, but was obliged to leave school before graduation because of financial reverses suffered by his father. He entered the army in 1876 after the Custer massacre and participated in the winter campaign of '76-'77 in the northwest. In 1878 he was engaged in the fighting when the Northern Cheyennes made their memorable raid across western Kansas; he personally removed Col. Lewis from the front to a place of safety after the latter had been mortally wounded in the engagement near Wallace, Kansas. He returned to civil life in 1881, and shortly after entered the service of the A. T. and S. F. Railway and continued with that company until his untimely death which resulted from a railroad accident at Coffeyville, Kansas.

4. Cordelia McFadden (b. June 9, 1867, in Indiana) went to Texas with the Roby family and died there, unmarried.

5. John Sellman McFadden (b. Nov. 8, 1859, in Indiana; d. October 4, 1940, at Chanute, Kansas; buried at Waverly, Kans.) was never married. He joined the army, and was a Sergeant in Troop L, Kansas Cavalry, and served in the Indian Wars.

6. Hannah Reynolds McFadden (b. Sept. 26, 1861, in Indiana; d. in 1931; buried at Waverly, Kans.) married, Dec. 11, 1881, in Coffey County, Kansas, Robert L. Irey (b. in 1854; d. in 1899). Children: George Irey, Orton Irey, Rose Irey, Elsie Irey, Robert L. Irey, and Mary Sellman Irey.

7. Henry S. McFadden (b. August 21, 1865, in Indiana) was never married. He served for many years in the U. S. Army in the commissary department, and was in the expedition sent to China in 1899 to put down the Boxer uprising.

SYMMES PURCHASE RECORDS

A VERBATIM COPY OF THE ENTRY BOOK, PAMPHLET, AND

FORFEITURE RECORDS OF JOHN CLEVES SYMMES

1787 – 1800

Chris McHenry

1979

[illegible] (Introduction)

INTRODUCTION

In 1787 John Cleves Symmes, a prominent resident of New Jersey, and former member of the Continental Congress, followed the advice of Benjamin Stites, once his neighbor, and a noted frontiersman.

Symmes embarked on an exploring trip to the Ohio Valley, specifically to examine the land around the Great and Little Miami Rivers.

What he saw convinced him that it would be profitable to form a new land development company, to be called the Miami Company. His proposal followed that of the Ohio Company, which had already purchased vast tracts of land along the Ohio.

In August of 1788, he, with a number of wealthy and prominent associates, petitioned Congress to be allowed to purchase all the land between the two Miamis, with the Ohio as the southern boundary, and an extension of the northern boundary of the Ohio Company land as the northern edge.

The agreement made, the land was to be surveyed into six mile square townships, with sections of one mile square. Section 16 in each township was to be reserved for education; section 29 for religious purposes, and Sections 8, 11 and 26 reserved to Congress for future disposition.

In November of the same year, Symmes published 1000 copies of a pamphlet entitled "Terms of Sale and Settlement of Miami Lands", a copy of which is printed in this volume.

The pamphlet spelled out Symmes ardent desire for actual settlement, rather than speculation, in purchase of the land.

As a result, he ordered that any purchaser who had not actually settled and/or improved his land, would forfeit 106 acres of each section, to be located in the northeast corner of the section.

Purchases were recorded in a book set aside for that purpose, with additional entries referring to forfeits.

Forfeiture records were also kept in a separate book.

It is not the purpose of this volume to go into Symmes problems with the Federal Government concerning the extent of the original purchase, but merely to explain his method of keeping records.

In February of 1811, Judge Symmes' home at North Bend, which supposedly contained all of his records, was destroyed by fire.

In recent years, it has been officially published that as a result, there exists today no record of Symmes original sales.

However, the original copy of the pamphlet, most of the original sales book, and a large portion of the forfeit record did survive, and were widely used for a number of years to settle land disputes in the courts until a fear arose that they would be lost or damaged.

In 1823, by order of the Ohio Legislature, and after personal testimony from those who had had possession of the documents, all three: the pamphlet, the entry book and the forfeit book, were painstakingly copied into the deed records.

That portion of the books which referred to Hamilton County went into the records at Hamilton County, as did the Butler County portion in Butler County and the Warren County portion in that county.

They were indexed simply under "Symmes, John Cleves", with no hint of the rich mine of information included.

The notation in the original books often included information as to the residence of the purchaser, as well as bits of information about where settlers went when they left, and occasionally, even the names of heirs.

The books cover the period from 1789 to 1798.

In putting together this volume, I have elected to omit the page numbers which appear in the separate county records. The original page numbers in Symmes' registry books have been inserted in the center of the present page to prevent confusion with the paging of this volume.

In searching for a given entry in the actual court records, the researcher can be easily guided by the use of Symmes' original page numbers, which are included in the court records.

Cross-outs and marginal notes found in the original record have been retained in the court records and in this volume. No attempt has been made to correct the often uncertain spelling of the late 1700's.

The Hamilton County transcript exists as a typed copy in the possession of the Cincinnati Historical Society and is accessible at their Library in Eden Park.

The Butler County record will be found at the County Recorder's Office in Hamilton, O., and the Warren County record in the Recorder's Office, Lebanon, O.

My thanks to the Recorders of these two counties and to Laura Chase of the Cincinnati Historical Society for their help and cooperation.

Without the expert help of Mrs. Patty Carter and her daughter Diana, who deciphered the original notes into a working draft, and Mrs. Earlene Davis, who typed the final copy, these pages would not have been completed.

The arduous work of proof reading every entry was aided by my son, Ernest A. Deck, and my husband, Robert D. McHenry.

My thanks and appreciation to them.

WHERE THE RICH FAMILIES LIVED

JACOB RICH OF FAYETTE COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
HIS SONS AND HIS GRANDSONS

BY Julia Rich Hogan

Historic boundary disputes play a large part in any research on this Jacob Rich. He chose as his place of residence the area of the Monongalia which was later a disputed territory. Up until 1788 residents of this area did not know whether they would be part of Pennsylvania or Virginia. In 1772 Jacob was listed in contiguous parts of Green, Washington and Westmoreland Counties. In 1773 he was listed at Springfield Township. Jacob's will of 1795 shows he was resident at Fayette County.

At the time the Revolution broke out, this area was, as stated, disputed territory and in turmoil because of that. The residents decided to support Washington, and Jacob participated in the War, ranging along the Upper Ohio. He was captain in the Baddis Command of the Monongalia Militia.

Jacob's farm, or plantation, was called "Richmond", and it was along Brown's Run. It was complete with burying ground, and later coal was found on this property. He was active in his community, of a religious bent, and he built a Lutheran church called "Old Jacob's Log Lutheran Church", which was also complete with cemetery. It was located east of the Monongalia River adjacent to Jacob's property and about three miles east of Nasontown, Pa. The church was over 160 years old in 1933, and it still stands. Another church was built beside it in 1871. Jacob signed his name on one document as "Reich."

Martin's History of Nobel County, Ohio states the Rich family was a "very old and a very highly respected one in southeastern Ohio." Watkins states the family was of German and Scotch extraction and that Jacob was born in Germany and came to this country with a brother about 1740, settling in Massachusetts, and that the brothers separated there and never saw each other again. It has been stated that this Jacob and John Rich of Ashburnham, Massachusetts and Maidstone, Vermont were brothers. We have documented the passage from Germany to this country of John Rich of Maidstone, but not of his supposed brother, Jacob Rich of Fayette County, Pennsylvania.

Jacob moved to Greene County, Pennsylvania and settled on a farm there where he died. The History of Nobel County states his wife was a Miss Craft and their children were Thomas, George, Daniel, David, John, Abraham, Peter, Ann and Catherine. Our records show he had two wives: (1) Ann (or Polly Ann ?) (Penter), and (2) Anna Craft als Kraft, Kroft. His children were ①Elizabeth, ②Catherine, ③Jacob, Jr., ④ Thomas, ⑤John, ⑥George C., ⑦ Peter, ⑧Mary, ⑨Sarah, ⑩David, ⑪Anna and ⑫Abraham. ⑬
b. 1792

With his share in his father's estate, Jacob's son ④ Thomas settled on the watersof the little Miami River in Hamilton County, Ohio. After the death of Jacob, Thomas took his two-year old brother, Abraham, with him to Miami County. Watkins states that another brother shortly took him back to Pennsylvania, returning by way of Columbus and Zanesville, swimming the Muskingum River at Zanesville with Abraham upon his back. It must be remembered that at that time Abraham, with his brothers and sisters, were under guardianship and under the control of the Orphan Court.

⑫ Abraham was born in 1792, and at the age of eighteen went with his brother John to Nobel County, Ohio. He was drafted in the War of 1812. A family story is that Abraham went as a young man to the gold regions of the far west and came back to Ohio with money enough to buy large holdings of land on Wills Creek, and settled there until death, farming and operating a cheese factory. He was married twice: (1) to Annie Thompson, and (2) to Mrs. Catharine Johnston Stevens.

Watkins relates a fascinating story about Abraham and a hog which wandered from home. Abraham found him in a ravine with part of his foreshoulder eaten off, and standing over him was a large black bear. Abraham had no weapon but stared the bear down until it turned away. Abraham proceeded to get the bear home,but left it, returning the next morning with his gun and, sure enough, the bear was there, and this time Abraham destroyed him. He consistently tracked bears, sometimes taking his brother John Rich with him.

Abraham and his brothers were real pioneers. Nothing deterred them from traveling in the wilderness. On one occasion when they were expecting visitors from Pennsylvania into the Ohio territory, they felled trees in both directions so that the visitors could more easily find their way. Of all the pioneering brothers, Abraham's favorite traveling companion was his brother John. History records that soon after ⑤ John went to Ohio he lost some horses and he tracked them to Moundsville, West Virginia, where they swam the Ohio River and returned to the old home in Greene County, Pennsylvania. This area was a wilderness at that time.

Abraham's brother ④ Thomas settled in Symmes Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, and built a cabin with its own burying ground nearby. This cabin was torn down in 1867 and the bodies in the burying ground returned to Miamisville. (Miamisburg or Miamistown)

⑥ George Rich, another brother, settled at Noble County, Ohio, marrying twice. ⑦ Peter married and lived at Pleasant City, Nobel County. ⑩ David was taken by the Craft family to Fayette County, Pennsylvania near Morristown, and he owned land on the south branch of the Muddy Creek, which land later was owned by his grandson, Andrew L. Rich of Khediva, Pennsylvania.

From David there are many descendants living today. His son, Israel Craft Rich, was a minister, a justice of the peace, and a brickmaker. He made the bricks which went into the building of his own large house. This house was burned during World War II. Israel was born near Carmichaels Pennsylvania in 1823. He died in 1900 near Morgantown, W. Virginia. His mother was Margaret Morrison of Philadelphia whose family manufactured the Falcon steel pen, the first in America. Israel Craft Rich married twice: (1) Rachel Darling by whom he had six children; and (2) Mariah Davis by whom he also had six children. Israel is buried on his farm near his son, John C. Rich. Israel's son was Hugh Barclay Rich, a musician and an artist, who vanished in 1917 and subsequently it was learned that he had the death of Jacob, Thomas took his two-year old brother, Abraham, with him to Miami County. Watkins states that another brother shortly took him back to Pennsylvania, returning by way of Columbus and Zanesville, swimming the Muskingum River at Zanesville with Abraham upon his back. Must be remembered that at that time Abraham, with his brothers and sisters, were under guardianship and under the control of the Orphan Court.

Israel Craft Rich married twice (1) Rachel Darling by whom he had six children; and (2) Mariah Davis by whom he also had six children. Israel is buried on his farm near his son, John C. Rich. Israel's son was Hugh Barclay Rich, a musician and artist, who enlisted in 1917 and subsequently it was learned that he had been accidently killed in Washington, D.C. in the 1950's. Hugh Barclay Rich's son was Jesse Victor Rich. He is living, age 83. His mother was Fern (Chambers) Rich, and his son is R.F.A. member Victor L. Rich of Massillon, Ohio. David had many children, amongst whom Lot Lantz Rich married Louisa Gwynn, and several R.F.A. members are descendants of Lot.

⑬ Daniel Rich, another of Abraham's brothers, married Hannah Ammons and had a very large family. He was also under guardianship of the Orphan Court and as a small boy was taken and raised to manhood by Andrew Brown, near Pentress, West Virginia, on Dunkard Creek. Daniel's son was Daniel Catton Rich who became director of the Chicago Art Institute and achieved passing fame when he refused to display some of Winston Churchill's paintings, insisting adherence to the rule that works of a living person not be displayed.

Abraham had sisters: ⑪ Anna married Jeremiah Snider and had a large family. They removed to Washington County, Iowa. ⑨ Sarah married William Woodford. ⑧ Mary married Benjamin Maple and had a large family, living in Jefferson County, Ohio. ① Elizabeth married Martin Varner and was of Fort Ancient, Ohio. ② Catherine married Michael Core, a pioneer of Clay District, West Virginia.

These are the children of Jacob Rich of Fayette County, Pennsylvania and the brothers and sisters of Abraham Rich. They were all under the control of the Orphan Court and were sent in different directions to grow up.

Abraham was a very religious man and was part of the Methodist movement in Noble County, Ohio. He was first class leader, along with his sons Jeremiah and Jacob in the Methodist Episcopal Church there at Buffalo Township. He died in 1873. His pioneer spirit did not die with him but it was transferred to his children. His son Jacob, born in a log cabin in Seneca Township in 1824, took a drove of hogs across the mountains to Maryland, at the age of 24, walking back. In the early 1860's he took a trip to Nebraska, Colorado, Nevada, Utah, Oregon, Washington territory, Idaho, Montana, British America, and California, traveling some 3000 miles. He was captured once by Indians, and he nearly drowned three times, once on the Borsha River and again on the Platt River. He was also shipwrecked on the Pacific Ocean. In 1862 he started for the gold mines in California, taking the train as far as Des Moines, Iowa, and then traveled by wagon. He was away some twenty months. At one point he walked 700 miles before he could connect with any kind of a lift. He died in 1900 on the old homestead.

The Rich Cemetery in Nobel County, Ohio, tells the genealogical history of this family, and is rich in such data. Grave after grave bears the name Rich, or a name closely associated through marriage with this Rich family. The sons and daughters of a German emigrant, under the guardianship of an orphan court and sent to various places to be reared, all made outstanding lives for themselves and their children, leaving indelible marks upon the history books of the areas in which they lived, so that tracing them is not difficult. Down through the years to the present generations, descendants know the history of their ancestors and treasure the keepsakes and family myths that have been passed down to them. Descendants of Jacob of Fayette County, Pennsylvania, who are members of the Rich Family Association, are justly proud

In the Spring and Summer 1979 issue of Kinfolk (Page 16) Jacob Rich of Fayette County, Pennsylvania was dealt with under the caption Where the Rich Families Lived. Victor L. Rich of Massillon, Ohio has sent pictures of the church at which Jacob and his family worshipped, as well as some legend.

The old log church is still standing, on a hilltop. The nearest town is Leckrone, Pennsylvania. The original church was established in 1773, the patent dated 1794. The log church was replaced in 1846 by a brick church which was enlarged to the present size in 1881.

On his travels in search of this history Victor stayed overnight at a motel between Carmichaels and Masontown, Pennsylvania. In a Masontown booklet was a photo of a large grave monument with the name Mason, also Elizabeth Rich and one that appeared to be Jacob Rich. This monument is in New Waterford, Ohio, about 60 miles east of Victor's home, and he will go there to see if the stone actually reads Jacob.

The tract of land in Ohio was wild land, near East Liverpool, and purchased by John Mason. In 1802, he divided these lands among his three daughters and their husbands, Peter Rich, Franks and Maple. John Mason and wife thereafter made their home with their daughter Elizabeth Rich.

Dear Ms. Hinshaw:

We are enclosing copies of land records for Joseph and John Lindsey and Thomas Elliott, as you requested in your letter of October 5, 1980. The cost of these reproductions is $4.40, for which we enclose a bill.

The records of the former General Land Office in this division show that Military Bounty Land Warrant 4603, 200 acres, was issued, on December 21, 1792, to John Tate, heir and administrator of Matthew Lettimore or Lattimore, Virginia Continental Line. This warrant was used by Joseph Lindsey to locate 200 acres of land (Survey #2623) in the Virginia Military District of Ohio. This land is located on the Little Miami River in Miami Township, Clermont County, Ohio. This tract of land was patented to William Lytle on June 3, 1823, and recorded in volume 11, page 11. The Federal Government's record copies of land patents for Ohio have been retained by the Bureau of Land Management. To order a copy of this patent, you should write to the Bureau of Land Management, Eastern States Office, 350 South Pickett Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22304. To request possible additional information about Joseph Lindsey and this land, we suggest that you write to the State Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, Virginia 23219.

The records also show that Virginia Military Warrant 6439, 2666'2/3 acres, was issued, to the heirs of Jeremiah Morgan. This warrant was partially used by John Lindsey to locate 500 acres of land (Survey #10784) in the Virginia Military, District of Ohio. This land is located on White Oak Creek in Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio. This tract of land was patented to John Lindsey on March 19, 1824, and recorded in volume 11, page 174.

Finally, the records show that Virginia Military Warrant 5729, 300 acres, was issued to the representatives of Archibald Elliott. This warrant and Warrant 6439 were partially used by John Lindsey and Thomas Elliott to locate 120 acres of land (Survey #10979) in the Virginia Military District of Ohio. This land is located on the Scioto River in Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio. This tract of land was patented to Cadwallader Wallace on January 16, 1824, and is recorded in volume 11, page 133.

To obtain a copy of the U.S. Patent, issued for land in the Virginia Military District, first write to the National Archives, Washington D.C. 20408. Provide them the entry and survey number, date of entry and survey, warrant number, warrantee, and name of assignee. (Request the patent volume and page number which is on the entry record.) With the information National Archives provides, write to the Bureau of Land Management, Eastern States Office, 350 South Pickett Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22304.

Keep in mind that our records only deal with original entries of Ohio land, and that sometimes land transactions occurred between the time of entry (our records) ad the time the patent was eventually issued.

The U.S. Patent and subsequent real estate transactions should be recorded in the County Recorder's Office of the county in which the land was situated at the time of the transaction.

We hope that this information will help you, and wish you much success with your genealogical research.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS E. FERGUSON

to Sophie Richie, who was born in Ohio and raised in Wisconsin. Having formerly lived in Sangamon county, Illinois, he was personally acquainted with President Lincoln, Governor Palmer, and John A. McClelland. Here he was engaged in teaching school and farming. Coming to Missouri, he served one term as judge of the county court, from 1873 to 1875, in Barton county. All his family are members of the Methodist Church, where he is an active worker, and was the means of building a fine country church in Barton county. He is engaged with Mr. Logan in the agricultural implement business as well as at Lamar, in the firm of Bemer & Waters. He is still largely engaged in stock-raising and is one of the prominent men of the city and county. WILLIAM DIXON - REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER

WILLIAM DIXON was born in or about 1765 in Ireland. He accompanied his parents to Virginia sometime before the outbreak of the Revolution. His father enlisted for military duty shortly after the battle of Bunker Hill; he served for the duration of the war, and died on the way home.

William Dixon enlisted in Berkeley County, Virginia, in the fall of 1782, and was enrolled in Captain Bodkin's Company, Colonel Armand's Regiment, Virginia Militia. He was honorably discharged at Little York, Pennsylvania, in or about October, 1783.

Some years later William Dixon married Miss Grizzy Ann Bell, who was born in 1771 of Scottish ancestry. In 1788 they emigrated from Virginia with several other families to what is now Mason County, Kentucky, settling near Limestone (now Maysville). The Indians were still a menace in this area, and William Dixon was frequently engaged in defensive or punitive measures against them until the signing of the Greenville Treaty in 1795.

In 1793 William Dixon and Cornelius Washburn crossed the Ohio River and built a cabin in what is now Union Township, Brown County, on Eagle Creek, one mile north of Logan's Gap. However, he and his wife did not permanently settle in Ohio until seven or eight years later. They then located in Union Township, where they continued to live for the remainder of their lives. Grizzy Ann (Bell) Dixon died January 3, 1825, aged 54 years; William Dixon died June 10, 1838, aged 73 years. They are buried in the Red Oak Cemetery, Union Township, Brown County, four miles north of Ripley.

The children of William and Grizzy Ann (Bell) Dixon were as follows (one, name unknown, died young):

1. John Dixon (b. about 1789, in Mason County, Kentucky) married first, Feb. 12, 1811, in ~~Brown~~ Adams County, Ohio, Mary Middleswart; he married second, Apr. 13, 1820, Frances Rey.
2. William Dixon Jr. (b. Feb. 19, 1791, in Mason Co., Ky.; d. Sept. 25, 1867, in Brown Co., Ohio) married first, Dec. 16, 1813, Susannah Hardesty; he married second in 1833 Mary A. (Carr) Henry, widow of John Henry.
3. Amos Dixon (b. about 1797 in Mason Co., Ky.; d. about 1857 in Winchester, Adams Co., Ohio) married first, Feb. 8, 1821, Mary Hayslip; he married second, Sept. 19, 1822, Esther Archer, daughter of George and Mary S. Archer.
4. Nancy Dixon (b. Nov. 15, 1798, in Mason Co., Ky.; d. in 1868) married in 1815 Abraham Hawk.
5. Josiah Dixon (b. in 1800, in Mason Co., Ky.) married, May 20, 1824, Susan Liggett, daughter of John and Rachel (Miller) Liggett.
6. Thomas Dixon (b. in 1804, in Adams - now Brown - Co., Ohio) married, Feb. 9, 1829, Elizabeth Burgett.
7. Hannah Dixon (b. in 1806, in Adams - now Brown - Co., Ohio; d. before 1850) married, July 22, 1826, John Robbins.
8. Elizabeth Dixon (b. Sept. 15, 1808, in Adams - now Brown - Co., O.; d. Oct. 8, 1856, in Brown Co.) married, Jan. 1, 1828, Joseph W. Mann.
9. James Dixon (b. 1813, in Adams - now Brown - Co., Ohio) married, Sept. 19, 1833, Sarah Blair.
10. Harrison Dixon (b. Sept. 30, 1813, in Adams - now Brown - Co., Ohio; d. Oct. 23, 1854, in Brown Co.) married, Nov. 30, 1836, Cindilla Pickerill.

William Dixon
S. 16104

Dear Sir:

The data contained herein were obtained from papers on file in claim for pension, S. 16104, based upon service of William Dixon in the Revolutionary War.

The date and place of birth of William Dixon, and names of his parents are not given. He stated that his father entered the service immediately after the Battle of Bunker Hill, served until the close of the war, and died on his way home.

William Dixon enlisted in Winchester, Virginia, in the fall of 1782, served as a private in Captain Bedkin's company in Colonel Armand's Corps, and was discharged in the fall of 1783, in Little York, Pennsylvania.

He was allowed pension on his application executed October 1, 1819, at which time he was aged about fifty-three years, and a resident of Brown County, Ohio.

William Dixon married, and in 1788 moved from Virginia to Mason County, Kentucky. The name of his wife and place of marriage are not shown.

While in Kentucky he was out in several expiditions against the Indians, no further details of this service given.

William Dixon stated in 1828 that he had three sons in the "late war", their names not designated.

William Dixon died June 10, 1838, leaving no widow, but the following children survived him-

Nancy Hawk
Hannah Robbins, referred to in 1850 as deceased
Elizabeth Mann
John Dixon
Amos Dixon
Josiah Dixon
Thomas Dixon
James Dixon
Harrison Dixon
William Dixon, aged fifty-eight years in 1850, and then a resident of Union Township, Brown County, Ohio.

Very truly yours

A. D. Hiller
Executive Assistant to the Administrator

NOTE: From existing muster rolls listing Brown County, Ohio, men who served in the "late war" or War of 1812 William Dixon's three sons who did so were:

BIG WILLIAM DIXON - PIONEER SCOUT AND LOG HOUSE BUILDER

When the Brown County Historical Society moved a log house from Logan's Gap to the County Fairground where it was restored and can now be seen it brought to public attention the name of the man who is believed to have originally built that house. Very little, if anything, was done however to present any definitive representation of that man, one William Dixon, Sr. Since there is now no urgent need for a distinction between father and son that house builder will in this article be referred to simply as William Dixon. Research has discovered little of the facts of Dixon's life in Brown County, butthe following facts - most of them from his own personal statements - are believed to be acceptably accurate. According to one family informant William Dixon was born in Ireland and migrated with a brothe to the colonies just in time to enlist in the American forces during the Revolutionary War. William Dixon was born in 1765 which would have made him quite a young man when he first went to war. According to one of his own sworn statements his father was also living in the State at the time of the Revolution so it may be that the entire family was then in this country. The names of the parents of William Dixon are unknown, but the father was said to have enlisted in the Colonial Militia immediately after the Battle of Bunker Hill and to have then served until the end ofthe war. He died on his way home after being discharged from the service and never again saw his family. William Dixon himself enlisted for the term of "during the war" and at Winchester, Berkeley County, Virginia. He was placed as a private of Infantry in the company commanded by Captain Beakins and the Regiment commanded by Colonel Armand and contrary to his own statement of for the duration of the war the muster rolls of that company show that he was to serve two years. He himself testified that because he was left fatherless so young he never had an opportunity to attend school so was unable to kee any "written remembrances" of his military service and that late in life he could not perfectl recall all the pertinent facts. He was uncertain as to exactly when he did enlist but recalle that it must have been in the Springtime because when he hastily departed for the recruiting officer he left standing in a furrow the plow he had been using. The precise date of his discharge from the army was also uncertain to him but there again memory offered some fact. He was discharged at Little York, Pennsylvania, "when a deep snow was lying on the ground". Eventually he applied for a pension under the federal Pension Act of 18 March 1818 and such a pension was granted and paid at be rate of $8.00 per month from October 1, 1819 until it was discontinued, for undisclosed reasons, March 1, 1820. On November 20, 1826 he appeardd in court and applied to have his pension reinstated because he was practically destitute, unable to work, and supported only by the charity of his children. The most which is known about the man is to be found in the lengthy statement submitted at that time: one which was from its wording obviously compiled for him by an educated person and the presented to him so that he could 'make his mark' being unable to sign his name.

The birthplace of William Dixon has never been positively identified, so may well be Ireland. He was living in Virginia at the time of his entry into the army and probably returned there afterwards as he married Crizzy Ann Bell, a Marylander. In 1788 he moved his family to Mason County, Kentucky and established a home in Limestone (now Maysville) where he remained some years as proved by the fact that his youngest child, William, Jr., was born in Kentucky in 1792. The exact date when William Dixon first moved to what is now Brown County is another of the debatable facts. Most references give 1793 as the year for that. He himself in November of 1826 claimed to have been a resident of Ohio for just 21 years, which would have put him in the territory North of the Ohio River in 1805 or considerably later than the belief that he was possibly the first permanent resident of Brown County. However, it is a known fact that he was a good friend and close associate of the great Indian scout Cornelius Washburn and Dixon himself testified that while yet a resident of Maysville he "more than once or twice - nay, frequently, volunteered in the various expeditions of the citizens of that part of the country against the Indians - the cruel enemies of the early settlers of that state - and although he had no particular feats of prowess to boast of, or me it to claim, more than was common to hundreds in those times he at least showed his willingness to expose himself in defense of his country and fellow citizens when circumstances called for it". This alone may be the needed proof that he and Washburn did establish some sort of a camp for base of operations at some time before he felt justified to move his wife and eleven small children into the wilderness of what is now Brown County. Cornelius Washburn at a very early date also crossed to Ohio and after marrying Jemima Masterson founded a home in Jefferson Township between Georgetown and Russellville. The sworn statement made by William Dixon on November 20, 1826 is a lengthy and informative one, comprising more than three pages of typed manuscript. Beyond facts already extracted from that and given above some interesting trivia may be found in his declaration that he believed himself worthy of a pension restoration because of his excessive corpulence, his usual weight then being some 300 pounds, and his need for a horse to get about the countryside since "without a horse I may well be said to be without legs. Two miles on foot would be a most serious day's travel for me, If I could accomplish it at all". He further admitted to some injudicious land investment and bad luck which had drained his finances until he was destitute and reduced to existing on the charity of some of his children. His wife had succumbed in 1825 after a very lengthy illness which had incurred staggering medical bills. Dixon's statement was attested to by Archibald Liggett, member of thefirst School-board elected in Union Township, Brown County, Ohio and to it was attached a certification addressed to the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the U.S. Congress attesting to the good character, honesty, sobriety and industry of the pension applicant and their willingness to vouch for him and endorse his claims. This annexed document was signed by twenty-eight of Dixon's friends and neighbors - a list which includes many such well known pioneer names as Poage, Campbell, Liggett, Shepherd and Cilliland. Without diseent or hesitation they proclaimed their esteem for the man and their unqualified belief that he was worthy of having his pension reinstated. Under the provisions of the Pension Act as revised and repromulgated as of May 1, 1820 destitution or hardship was a requisite for favorable action. The document establishing that in the case of William Dixon is rather lengthy but because of some pertinent and highly interesting facts contained therein will be here quoted at some length:

Some other articles not now particularily recollected exclusively for the support of my family & for medical services for my wife in her last sickness, & for myself.

I have no means of support except by the charity of my children James, Thomas, Betsey and Harrison with whom I now reside. I am entirely unable to do any labor being very corpulent, my usual weight being upward of three hundred pounds, my occupation that of a farmer.

And thereto he made his mark and the document was attested as sworn to and subscribed in Open Court on the 20th day of September 1826 and signed by William Shepherd, Clerk.

Family tradition had always maintained that William Dixon was "a very large man" whereas his wife Grizzy Ann Bell Dixon was a tiny woman who in her life never reached a weight of one hundred pounds. That she was deceased before Sept. 20, 1826 is proven by the inscription on her gravestone which testified that she died March 1, 1825 at the age of 54 years. William Dixon lived until June 10, 1838 when he succumbed at the age of 73 years. Another interesting and controversial fact is found in that William Dixon has two clearly marked grave stones in two entirely different burial places. He and his wife Grizzy are buried in the small but still well kept cemetery which was laid out beside the old Baptist church which once stood on what is now West Henry and Linn Roads to the West of Route 62 and Red Oak. This was formerly referred to as Old Brick Red Oak and the church building disappeared years ago after the congregation dwindled. The two grave markers thereat the back of the cemetery and near where the church stood are inscribed:

DIXSON, William died 6/10/1838 aged 73 years

DIXSON, Grizzy (consort William, Sr.) died 3/1/1825 aged 54

Near them are buried a number of their eleven children. A few years back a descendant searching the graveyard at Stone Red Oak Church (Presbyterian) and failing to locate any marked grave for William Dixon had erected there a monument with only the information to the confusion of future genealogists. William Dixon, Sr. and wife Grizzy Ann Bell Dixon were the parents of the following children:

William DIXON (Serg't V. Mil - Rev. War)

Nancy Dixon Hook
Hannah Dixon Robbins
Elizabeth Dixon Mann
John Dixon
Amos Dixon
Josiah Dixon

David Dixson
Thomas Dixon
James Dixon
Harrison Dixon
William Dixon, Jr.
One who was not listed by the father in 1820 but who was probably a daughter of Wm. Jr. not Sr. Cindillia who died unmarried in 1869 at the age of 48 yrs 6 mos and 4 days b. ca 1821

In his statem nt of 1826 William Dixon testified that " three of my sons volunteered, at one time, during the last war (The War of 1812) and performed a six months tour of duty". This is confirmed by the roster of Soldiers from Ohio in the War of 1812 and names them as David, John and William Dixon all of whom served from February 1 to August 12, 1813 in Captain Elijah Martin's Company from Brown County, Ohio. William Dixon is also on record as stating that he was the father of nine sons and which in the list above leaves two names as unaccounted for, but the mention of a son David as being in the War of 1812 supplies one those.

William Dixon's petition to have his pension reinstated was reviewed favorably by the legislature so that the government was instructed to again begin payments. Pension payments of $100.00 per year were resumed on March 4th, 1831 and continued until his death on June 10th, 1838.

No record or tradition exists to verify if William Dixon was still a 300 pound man at the time of his death.

Establishing families of their own the majority of the children of William and Crizzy Dixon left scattered throughout Brown County numerous descendants of the old Revolutionary War soldier and pioneer county resident William Dixon, now best remembered as the builder of a substantial and spacious Log cabin home.
